Indices of the New York Office did not contain any information concerning LEMOYNE BILLINGS.

Referenced Chicago letter dated 2/19/70 advised of CG 7459-S's acquaintanceship with KENNEDY and requested the New York Office to evaluate whether KENNEDY and/or BILLINGS would have been logical or feasible targets for the Soviet Intelligence Service, (SIS) (S) (U)

According to CG 7459-S, SIS in the person of YURIY A. MISHUKOV was interested in KENNEDY, particularly those associates of his in influential posts in the Federal Government in Washington. The New York Office is not in a position to know specifically what MISHUKOV had in mind when he instructed CG 7459-S to cultivate a relationship with LEMOYNE BILLINGS, described as a close personal friend of President KENNEDY whom he had met through PADRAIC KENNEDY. However, the New York Office is of the opinion that the SIS would always welcome an opportunity to cultivate personages in influential positions of the United States Government, particularly those with access to the President. The intelligence possibilities that can ensue from a successful cultivation in this area are endless. (S) (U) JOHN

As there is no outstanding investigation to be conducted by the New York Office in this matter, this investigation is being placed in a closed status.
