ADMINISTRATIVE

In view of the instructions from the Miami Office that the following information should not be disseminated outside the Bureau, this information is being placed on the Administrative pages of this report.

MM 1231-C-TE advised SA RALPH R. HILL on August 23, 1967, that the recent wave of bombings in Miami and Miami Beach were as a result of "orders from Mooney of Chicago." It is noted that SAMUEL M. GIANCANA is frequently referred to by his name, "MOONEY". The informant advised that the most recent of these bombings involved Miami top jewel thief JOHN CLARENCE COOK. On August 22, 1967, a bomb exploded in the front of COOK's Miami residence which destroyed his 1967 Cadillac, his 18-foot runabout boat and the front of his residence. On August 23, 1967, another bomb was suggestfully planted in the back of COOK's residence, on his 26-foot cruiser, which totally destroyed this craft. Informant advised that "MOONEY" ordered these last two bombings against COOK and that FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL, a Chicago and Miami gambler, received the contract. Informant advised that because of dissatisfaction against COOK involved his holding out on some $300,000 in rare coins which COOK had taken in a series of burglaries over the past several months.

Regarding other bombings, the informant stated that "MOONEY" had ordered that all bookmakers in the Miami area be brought under the jurisdiction and control of Chicago and emphasized this authority with the bombing of recalcitrants. Informant was unable to determine whether these orders emanated from "MOONEY" personally. He stated that he had no knowledge of "MOONEY"'s presence in Miami, either now or in the recent past.
