According to informant, the purpose of such call or calls was to ascertain what tips MAYS had obtained on horses; to ascertain what horses MAYS desired to bet on; or to have MAYS dial another number in Dallas and let WINFREY talk to such other party without there being any record of such party being called by WINFREY.

Informant stated that there is considerable "action" at the Tennison Golf Course which is frequented by numerous hoodlums and gamblers in Dallas. He identified J. B. He stated that TURNS and MC PHERSON about six weeks ago reportedly let the word out while at the golf course that they would be, from time to time, getting motel rooms in or near Dallas at which rooms their trusted betting customers could call them and give them bets. He named the Lamplighter Motel on Highways 67-80 East where they supposedly have operated in this fashion. He stated the word is also passed on the golf course about dice and card games. He stated the only way to know ahead of time as to the above would be to have an undercover man at the golf course who played in the group.
