WEEKLY SUMMARY

PCI, on 12/28/61 advised CHARLES TOURINE (Miami file 92-106) arrived in Miami, Fla., from New York City on 12/21/61 and is residing at his apartment in the Beaux Arts Apartments, North Bay Village.

OTHER 4

Records of Recorder of Deeds Office, Dade County, Fla., on 12/28/61 reflected that ALBERT BLEICH and EDITH BLEICH, his wife, executed, on 12/24/59, a "Satisfaction of Mortgage" document relative to the second mortgage of $5500.00 given to MARVIN R. SCHWARTZ and BEVERLY H. SCHWARTZ by MAX EDER (Miami file 92-467) and his wife, BETTY EDER, on 5/28/57. This document related the above indebtedness was paid in full, but was not filed at the Recorder of Deeds Office until 12/20/61. The above applies to EDER's residence at 1500 Calais Drive, Miami Beach, Fla. W

The Recorder of Deeds Office, in addition, on 12/28/61 reflected that MAX and BETTY EDER executed a mortgage on the above property to the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Association, Miami Beach, Fla., in the amount of $28,000.00 on 12/19/61, which was filed and recorded 12/20/61.

MM 509-C, on 12/26/61, advised that JOSEPH INDELICATO (Miami file 92-404) has returned to the Patio Bridge Club, Miami Beach, after a long absence and is again playing cards and shylocking out of that club.

DANIEL SULLIVAN, Operating Manager of the Crime Commission of Greater Miami, on 12/28/61 advised he heard Puccini's Restaurant, Miami, Fla., opened on 12/25/61 and so far has complied with all the requests and licenses of the City of Miami. JOE FISCHETTI (Miami file 92-99) has an interest in this establishment. SULLIVAN stated FISCHETTI and his associates remodeled two small buildings into one, which adjoins the property of the restaurant, and apparently intended to use it for a gambling setup. The City of Miami made them tear down part of the new panel walls which covered over the windows and make other corrections, as well as securing a promise that these premises will be used for no other purpose other than a residence for the manager. SULLIVAN commented that this building, before the corrections were made, had about 1000 feet of floor space, had newly paneled walls throughout, four air conditioners, a ceiling fan, a large pool table was in the center of the room, which room had a plush red carpet, a men's and women's wash room, and the two doors had three locks apiece on them.
