A list of the members of Amvets Post #35 was obtained from the National Headquarters of Amvets and the list contains innumerable names of gamblers and bookmakers.

[redacted] PCI, on 1/19/62, advised that MAX EDER (Miami file 92-467), runs the card room in the Fontainebleau Hotel, Miami, Beach; that he directs its operations and has issued specific instructions no money is to be displayed in the card room where usually poker, gin and pinochle goes on. He pointed out that EDER's front man there is one ABBY MC DONALD, who is almost deaf, an alcoholic and feeble. [redacted] also related that RAY VIDY acts as EDER's chauffeur and that JOHN NASH, a security officer at the Fontainebleau Hotel, acts as EDER's bodyguard. In addition he made available a telephone number from which bookmaking bets are made from the card room.

MM 665-C on 1/25/62, advised that he learned the past winter season, when CHARLES TOURINE (Miami file 92-106) and JOSEPH NESLINE operated a bookmaking and layoff operation out of the Beaux Arts Apartments, North Bay Village, Fla., they paid a couple of hundred dollars a week to an investigator called "MAC" who was employed by RICHARD GERSTEIN's State Attorney Office, in Miami. This source stated insofar as he knew, TOURINE and NESLINE are not operating in Miami to date, but that TOURINE has a piece of NESLINE's dice and gambling operation in Washington, D. C. He also learned that TOMMIE REYNOLDS, a former messenger for the Hotel Capri and Gambling Casino, before CASTRO took over Cuba, is presently visiting in Miami and in contact with TOURINE.

This source also furnished the names of some contracts obtained by the National Plastering Co., Miami, Fla., where MAX EDER is one of the principals.
