POSSIBLE EXTORTION

On June 10, 1968, Mr. Alberto Becerra Sierra, Minister, Mexican Embassy, 2829 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), furnished an envelope addressed to "The Honorable Ambassador of Estados Unidos de Mexico to the United States, Mexican Embassy, Washington, D.C.," postmarked Miami, Florida, June 7, 1968. Contained in this envelope were three Western Union Telegram Forms, each of which, contained a typewritten message in the Spanish language. The translation of the contents of each of these telegrams is as follows:

"No. 1 Western Union telegram dated 6/6/68, addressed to General Francisco Franco, Madrid, Spain:

"Disregarding the petitions of the Cuban people, it obliges us to give an ultimatum of war against your Government unless you suspend all commerce with the Cuban Communists regime. If you do not do this, you will be the one responsible for the Spanish planes and ships that will be dynamited. To avoid further mishaps, don't make the mistake of under estimating this advice from Cuban power.

"Signed Ernesto
Delegate General
Cuban Power CVBA

"No. 2 Western Union telegram dated 6/6/68, addressed to Sir Harold Wilson, London, England:

'about by anti-Castro Cubans. The British Government has said nothing. You ought to know that this is the first punishment from the heroic Cuban people to the British Government which trades with the tyranny of Castro. They will have to pay with much British blood for your opportunistic attitude inspired by economic gains without respect to those people who fight for a freedom that you only know how to defend for gold.
