DAVIS, Jr., with duplicate copies of three Western Union cablegrams dated Miami, Florida, June 6, 1968, sent by "ERNESTQ General Delegate, Cuban Power," to General FRANCISCO FRANCO, Madrid, Spain; LICENCIADO GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ, Government Palace, Mexico; and Sir HAROLD WILSON, London, England. All three cablegrams were pretyped on Western Union telegram forms and paid for in cash. Mr. KILLIAN advised that these telegram forms were received from the sender by TOMMY SANDRIDGE, Western Union employee, on duty the night of June 6, 1968, whose initials appear on each telegram.

Mr. KILLIAN agreed to keep and safeguard these three cablegrams pending issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

It had been ascertained through JOSE MEDINA, Miami PCI, that ABEL MESTRE, the employer of AIMEE MIRANDA, was, in this informant's opinion, reliable and in the past had been utilized or employed by CIA. (S) (F) (u)

On June 28, 1968, SA GEORGE E. DAVIS ascertained from [redacted] CIA, Miami, that his organization's interest in MESTRE terminated in April, 1967. (S) (F) (u)

The three telegrams in captioned matter were translated by Mrs. SOPHIE Y. SALIBA, Translator, Miami Office of the FBI.
