E. ISABEL CASINO; GLADYS ALVAREZ do CASANOVA; OLGA PEREIDA

assigned to the Intelligence Unit, Miami Police Department, as a Spanish linguist, advised January 21, 1964, that he received information from Cuban sources that an ISABEL CASINO, a young Cuban female, is residing in New York City with an individual named TRAFFICANTE, who was believed to possibly be an older brother of the subject. He said CASINO works as a prostitute in the apartment of GLADYS ALVAREZ de CASANOVA, Apartment 811, in the building next to Breston Hall, supposedly on 87th Street and Broadway. He said an additional prostitute in the same apartment is one Dominican female named OLGA PEREIDA. He said GLADYS is presently in Miami, awaiting the arrival of her husband, MANOLO CASANOVA, who is expected from Costa Rica; that ISABEL and OLGA are running GLADYS' apartment in her absence.

F. GEORGE C. WILKINSON
Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Mobile, Alabama

On January 21, 1964, TP T-10 advised SAs JOEL D. COLGLAZIER and JAMES A. DAY as follows:

He stated that he was an employee of GEORGE C. WILKINSON for a period of 15 years during which time the employment progressed from an employee-employer relationship to a full partnership, until informant purchased WILKINSON's share of the used car business they operated. He stated that during that time he and WILKINSON became close friends and confidants.

TP T-10 stated that WILKINSON never, to his knowledge, operated any type of gambling operation of his own, although he used to like to gamble and habitually went to Cuba to spend time there at the area known as Verderado (phonetic) Beach.

While in Cuba, WILKINSON would shoot craps at the little casinos there, but other than playing poker with friends and occasional bet with an acquaintance on a football game or basketball game, he never actively engaged in gambling.

TP T-10 stated that while in Cuba, WILKINSON became a close friend of one GUSTAVA BUSTAMONTE, who presently resides in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, somewhere near where WILKINSON lives now. Because of this association with BUSTAMONTE, it was rumored in Mobile at one time that WILKINSON brought thousands of dollars out of Cuba at the time of the Castro revolution. TP T-10 stated he knew personally this to be a false rumor, but said that WILKINSON liked to have such rumors being passed around as that lent credence to his way of life and indicated to people that he had a considerable amount of money.

TP T-10 said that WILKINSON has, over the years, made and lost a great deal of money and in one deal alone, received one million dollars for his share in an insurance company. He stated that at present, WILKINSON is devoting his full time to an insurance company, name unrecalled, and that during the previous week, he had attempted to interest TP T-10 in selling his used car business and investing in this insurance company. TP T-10 stated that since he had devoted his while life to the used car business, he had no desire to leave this business to start another one.

TP T-10 further stated that WILKINSON is the type of individual who keeps all money in his possession invested in various enterprises and at one time, purchased a motel in Mobile for one hundred thousand dollars, of which he borrowed ninety thousand dollars from the bank and five thousand dollars from TP T-10, but rumors indicated he was the sole owner of the enterprise. As an example of how little cash WILKINSON keeps, TP T-10 stated that often, he borrows money in twenty and fifty dollar amounts when in Mobile because his finances are all tied up in investments.
