CG 92-350-SUB D

FERRARO: GUS, are you gonna see MOE for lunch or later?

ALEX: I'd like to see him for lunch, but I don't know. I got to get the answer.

FERRARO: Well, just tell him, if you want to close the door on us, if that's what you want to do is close the door, then close it. That's all.

ALEX: Do you want to go along?

FERRARO: I'll go along, but if you feel that anything is right, I'll go along but if I say something, I'll say it.

ALEX: I want you to

FERRARO: Not to go against you or degrade you, but you could be wrong too, you know.

ALEX: 100%. But I have to fight for him!

FERRARO: Sure. Can't blame you. Just say, MOE, if you think we're wrong, OK now, you want to close the door on us, close it.

ALEX: I don't want to say that. If he wants to do it, let him do it, I don't want to give him an out. Well, I'm gonna go over and eat, you goin' over?

FERRARO: Sure.

ALEX: My mother is in bad shape. I put her in a wheel chair.

FERRARO: That's bad at her age.

The reference to MOE is obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum SAM GIANCANA. It is obvious that the situation under discussion concerns the fact that GIANCANA has decided to withdraw his support from Alderman JOHN D'ARCO and to support another candidate for Alderman of the First Ward of the City of Chicago in the elections in April, 1963. It is noted that this situation is also being covered by CG 6486-C* and CG 6576-C* as well as CG 6498-PC. It is interesting to note that from conversations furnished through CG 6576-C* it is known that D'ARCO is counting heavily on the support which he expects to get from ALEX. From the above conversation it would appear that the support of ALEX is not
