Remylet 4/24/70. u

CS MEX 287 advised 4/1/70 that subject definitely has bought a new house in Cuernavaca. This house is located in the Privada Las Quintas. It is supposed to be very expensive. However, subject is still using the house on Nubes while the new house is being refurbished. Source expects to be in position to report the exact address for the new house. (S) X (P) u

Reportedly subject is no longer playing golf and has not been to any of the regular card games. (S) X (P) u

On 5/6/70 source advised that subject is now driving a new Ford Galaxie in place of the Mercedes. (S) X (P) u

On 5/1/70 subject was seen having dinner at the Hotel Lincoln grill with a group including the LERNERS. Subject was escorting a woman from California. There are reports that his relationship with this woman had once approached the possibility of marriage. She is described as married also but separated from a very prominent California resident and as having grown children. (S) X (P) u

Subject stated that he was leaving that weekend. He intimated that he was leaving Mexico but did not say where he was going, although the LERNERS specifically asked him. He indicated he would be back in Mexico by the end of June, 1970. (S) X (P) u

On 5/20/70 source advised that apparently subject has not returned to Mexico City. There was a card game on

5/15/70 at CASTILLO's and subject was not there, and comment was made that apparently he has not returned. Source expected to be contacted by subject upon his return to Cuernavaca in June, 1970. (S) u

It is noted that a G. W. B. MANNING is the name of one of the telephones believed called from subject's telephone number. (S) u

On 5/4/70 ALFONSO FRIAS, Chief of the Department of Special Investigations of the Bank of Mexico (PROTECT), advised that GEORGE W. B. MANNING is a high official in the Compania Hulera Goodyear Oxo, the Mexican subsidiary of the Goodyear Tire Company. He is a member of the Bankers Club and is known as a person of ample economic and moral solvency. (S) u
