Date June 1, 1962

CHARLES M. CUCCIA, owner and operator of the Miami Clutch Company, 111 N. W. 20th Street, advised he lives at 531 N. E. 71st Street and also owns the house next door, 523 N. E. 71st Street, which he rents. At the present time, SANTO TRAFFICANTE and his wife rent the house at 523 N. E. 71st Street. Mr. CUCCIA advised TRAFFICANTE has rented this house for approximately one year, paying $100.00 per month, which he always pays in cash.

Mr. CUCCIA advised he seldom sees TRAFFICANTE, but has spoken to him occasionally. He said he did not know TRAFFICANTE before he rented his house, but did remember reading an article in a Miami newspaper which stated that TRAFFICANTE had been involved in gambling activities in Cuba before the Castro Government assumed control. Mr. CUCCIA said TRAFFICANTE had volunteered the information that the FBI was investigating him and told him that if the FBI asked him any questions, to tell anything they wished to know.

Mr. CUCCIA stated that TRAFFICANTE's wife is named JO and that his wife is on friendly terms with her. He stated that she makes frequent trips and his wife told him she goes to Tampa, Florida. Mr. CUCCIA said Mrs. TRAFFICANTE stays in Tampa about half the time. He said TRAFFICANTE also is frequently away from 523 N. E. 71st Street, usually for three to four days, and he assumed he also goes to Tampa, but he said he could not be certain of this.

Mr. CUCCIA said he has never seen TRAFFICANTE with another woman, and did not remember seeing any visitors at 523 N. E. 71st Street.

Mr. CUCCIA further advised he knew nothing concerning the activities or associates of TRAFFICANTE.
