From information developed from confidential sources and from information in Fort Worth newspapers, the Ft. Worth PD will be investigated by Chief of Police CATO HIGHTOWER and City Manager L. P. COOKINGHAM since the Ft. Worth City Council failed to back the last Tarrant County Grand Jurors' report that there were irregularities in the Ft. Worth PD. City Manager COOKINGHAM made a statement in the Ft. Worth papers that he was ordering a full investigation of the City PD and promised to get to the bottom of what the GJ called irregularities in the Department. COOKINGHAM ordered the 53 supervisory officers of the PD to weed out all the men who were not performing their duties.

Sheriff LON EVANS and PCI [redacted] of the [redacted] Office both feel that nothing will come of the investigation and the PD will get a clean bill of health.
