TP 92-1

On October 16, 1962 JOHN SAVATA CACCIATORE, 704 W. Alfred, close confidant of SAM TRAFFICANTE; FRANK IPPOLITO, aka Cowboy, formerly closely connected with subject's brother, HENRY TRAFFICANTE; NICK SCAGLIONE; and SALVATORE SCAGLIONE all disclaim having seen subject. On October 17, 1962 THOMAS PEREZ, owner EXCHELSIOR PAINTING COMPANY, who is brother to RICHARD PEREZ, SR., aka -"El Mono" who has been reported as numbers operator in the past, interviewed and no information developed concerning subject.

JACK DE LA LLANA, Intelligence Unit, Tampa PD advised he continues to make daily checks of subject's residence and associates and that his sources indicate subject still in Miami.

The Dallas Office advised on October 16, 1962 PCI [redacted] will be available for contact relative to subject in as much as he has obtained appeal on his conviction.

OTHER 4

On October 16, 1962 Sgt. HENRY JUSTO, Hillsborough County SO, advised Deputy had reported to him that subject had, in the past, been reported at the Airport Motel, Tampa, no dates nor time known.

JACK BRADFORD, Manager, Airport Motel, advised 10/18/62 he had lived in Tampa all his life and although subject known to him, he has not seen subject nor known him to be patron nor registered in the past. Note, However, that JAMES C. LONGO now patronizes this new motel bar on infrequent occasions, as JOE HERSEY is now night bartender, and HERSEY formerly ran Peacock Alley Lounge in the Coliseum Bowling Lanes, Davis Island, Tampa, Florida, where LONGO in the past frequented.

LEADS:

MIAMI DIVISION

Will continue to report subject's daily activities at Miami. Note: a Miami source in the past has reported that subject brought his traveling passport up to date, and another source indicated he had interest in establishing further interest in Guatemala.

TP 92-1

Miami further note that if LOUIS P. BRADY, subject of Miami file #92-847, is talking for the subject as alleged by Miami 768-C, BRADY will be in contact with the subject.

Advise Tampa results of obtaining appropriate film clips of subject and his Miami associates.

NEW YORK DIVISION

Establish appropriate liason so as to be in a position to know of action taken by N. Y. City Police Department and the District Attorney's Office relative to subject's involvements in the ALBERT ANASTASIA murder.
