to appear on two old traffic charges. QUARTARONE was also charged with operating a vehicle with an invalid driver's license. Located in QUARTARONE's automobile was a sack of 25 cent slugs, apparently prepared for use in telephones. QUARTARONE said he had come to Miami several days previously to stand trial with RALPH GEORGE SHEA (Miami File 165-6) as both were charged on 2/13/62, with "Entering without Breaking, a Public Telephone Booth to commit a felony." This trial however, has been postponed, to an undetermined date.

MM 609-C advised that subsequent to the arrest of RALPH GEORGE SHEA, on 2/18/63, when he was charged with "illegal dissemination of racing information" that SHEA is again disseminating racing results, but the time lag is now 20 - 25 minutes after the horse race is run. OTHER 4

PCI, furnished similar information to the above and added that SHEA has only a few bookmaker clients for his race results, because they believe he is too prone to arrest and his race results are sometimes unreliable.

IRS, Miami, on 3/28/63, arrested NATHAN FRANKEL, 1410 Ocean Drive, Miami Beach, and FRANCIS GRECO, 1512 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach, and were charged with accepting bets without purchasing a Federal gambling stamp. These two were taking bets over a two-telephone set up in a house at 735 N.W. 123rd Street. IRS on the same date arrested JOSEPH CHIERICO, operator of Sonny's Restaurant, 247 - 23rd St., Miami Beach, which was the "check-in point" for this operation. CHIERICO reportedly is a partner in the alleged operation with THOMAS ALTAMURA (Miami File 92-410).
