SF T-1 advised on June 23, 1964, that he had received information through ALEX CAMARATA, Martinez, California, son-in-law of JOHN MISURACA of Irvington, New Jersey, that MISURACA is one of the important leaders in the PROFACI Family of New York City. MISURACA indicated in a letter to the CAMARATA'S that there would be more "heads roll" in the organization in the future. CAMARATA was unable to furnish any further details or to explain what was meant by MISURACA's remark.

SF T-1 advised on December 10, 1963, that in a recent conversation with ALEX CAMARATA, member of La Cosa Nostra of Martinez, California, CAMARATA recalled their having a meeting at San Jose, California, over two years ago in which THOMAS NICOSIA was relieved of his position as secretary of the La Cosa Nostra due to ill health and was replaced by STEFANO ZOCCOLI. MANNY FIGLIA, "Capo", at San Jose, California, argued at this meeting that his father, VINCENZO FIGLIA, deceased, should be made secretary. Those in attendance at this meeting reportedly had a heated argument over this matter which ultimately resulted in ZOCCOLI being made secretary. Informant further recalled that the office of secretary prior to NICOSIA was held by ANTHONY SCAVUZZO, an elderly member of La Cosa Nostra of San Jose. Informant was not able to attend this meeting due to his employment.

SF T-1 advised on December 19, 1963, that plans had been made for ALEX CAMARATA, SALVATORE COSTANZA, both of Martinez, and ANGELO GIAMMONA of Modesto, California, to meet at the Used Car Lot of EMANUEL FIGLIA, "Capo", in San Jose on December 21, 1963, at which time they were to go to the California Cheese Company for a get-together of La Cosa Nostra members. Informant subsequently reported this proposed gathering had been canceled possibly due to the close scrutiny being given members of La Cosa Nostra by various Federal agencies.

SF T-6 advised on March 13, 1964, that STEVE ZOCCOLI, council member of La Cosa Nostra of San Jose, met with JAMES LANZA, "Don" of San Francisco in the office of the latter. They discussed the fact that ANGELO MARINO, "Capo" of the organization in San Jose had been interviewed by the FBI. LANZA indicated there is nothing going on in this area and MARINO should have told the agent that his facts were a bunch of lies. Both agreed they did not think

GEORGE ADRAGNA
VITO ADRAGNA

SF T-2 advised on February 13, 1964, that JOE CERRITO and FRANK SORCE of San Jose visited the residence of VITO ADRAGNA on February 12, 1964. At this time GEORGE ADRAGNA from Pennsylvania was visiting there, also present were DOMINICK ANZALONE and wife, and JOE CURCIO, a former automobile dealer from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, area and a close associate of VITO ADRAGNA, who moved to San Jose to assist VITO in the operation of his vending machine business.

SF T-2 has previously reported that VITO ADRAGNA is operating a vending machine business in San Jose and is in daily company of DOMINICK ANZALONE. Although ANZALONE will make no public admission, there is definite information indicating he is a partner with ADRAGNA in the vending machine business.

SF T-2 advised on March 18, 1964, that VITO ADRAGNA requested that FRANK SORCE of San Jose help him locate spots for installation of his vending machines. ADRAGNA indicated that he has an ulcer condition and has been going to Santa Cruz for treatment. It is noted that the son of DOMINICK ANZALONE is a doctor presently practicing at Santa Cruz, California.

CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

SF T-1, SF T-2, and other sources who are familiar with activities of members of La Cosa Nostra in Northern California, indicate they are gainfully employed in various legitimate businesses.

SF T-1 has indicated FRANK SORCE of San Jose is reportedly engaged to a limited extent in book-making, but does not involve other members of La Cosa Nostra in the operation.

SF T-8 advised on June 11, 1964, that he is familiar with a group of Italians throughout the United States who he referred to as the "Mafia", but that there is no activity with this group in the San Francisco Bay Area except for a few who live in San Jose, California, but were making so much money in the cheese business that they did not need to engage in illegal activities.
