Re Cleveland Airtel and Letterhead Memo dated 3/22/60.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of a letterhead memorandum containing information concerning the subject received from [redacted] Treasurer, Rand Development Corp. One copy of the letterhead memorandum and this Airtel is being designated for the information of the New York and Washington Field Offices inasmuch as sources of those offices may receive information in the near future that the subject's father, H. JAMES RAND, or other individuals connected with the Rand Development Corp. may contact officials or official establishments of the USSR in the United States pursuant to the subject's desire to return to the United States.

OTHER 4

Mr. [redacted]'s identity in the letterhead memorandum has been concealed at his request. The letterhead memorandum is being classified confidential since the information furnished by Mr. [redacted] would tend to reveal him as the source of this information and possibly jeopardize his future effectiveness.

Mr. [redacted] provided autostatic copies of the subject's letters to his father, which are copies prepared by the subject's father, and an autostatic copy of the subject's
