He was discharged on February 5, 1951, and he filed an appeal before the personnel board on February 8, 1951, although a date for the hearing on the appeal has not yet been set. Files of the SJO indicate that HERMANN STUBBE was born April 14, 1918, San Juan, Puerto Rico, graduated from the Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, in 1940. In 1943, he was interviewed by a Special Agents of the FBI and advised that in June, 1935, he made a trip to Germany as a member of a group of young men of German background, which trip was sponsored by the German Government.

He stated that he traveled from San Juan to Santo Domingo and from there to Puerto Plata where the group boarded a ship belonging to the Horn Line. He stated that upon embarking the group was placed under supervision of the Chief Steward, who was probably head of the Nazi organization for the ship and who wore the official National Socialist Party button on several occasions. During the voyage the group learned the Hitler salute and the official party songs. Upon arrival in Hamburg, Germany, the group was met by a committee made up of several groups of Hitler Youth and were taken to a camp approximately 20 miles west of Berlin, where there were approximately 2,500 boys from various countries throughout the world.

STUBBE advised that upon arrival at the camp, he and his companions were issued regulation Hitler Youth uniforms, but that in accepting the wearing of this uniform, neither he nor the others of the group were required to take any oath or vows of membership in the Hitler Youth organization. The camp was highly organized and the individuals were frequently called together for the purpose of listening to lectures and viewing propaganda films. Some of the speakers to the group included RUDOLF HESS, Doctor PAUL GOEBBLES and BALDUR VON SCHIRACH, party head of the Hitler Youth. Following the breaking up of the camp, a tour was taken of various cities in Germany, after which STUBBE returned to San Juan.

When questioned concerning his or his family's political activity in Puerto Rico, STUBBE stated that he had never at any time had any relations with members of the Nazi Party in Puerto Rico or was active in pro-German affairs.

STUBBE stated that shortly after his return in 1935 to San Juan, he was contacted by the German Consul who requested that he appear at a local radio station and give an account of his experiences in Germany. STUBBE stated he agreed and was furnished a script. He stated he read the script over the radio, but that it did not last for more than approximately two minutes. He stated he gave the speech inasmuch as he had accepted the hospitality of the German Government.
