LEADS (CONTINUED)

BOSTON

AT PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

- (1) Will maintain contact with informants and sources to locate subjects. U
- (2) Will recontact relatives and friends of the subject to ascertain their present whereabouts. U

AT BANGOR, MAINE

Will exhibit photos of subjects in Blue Lake, Maine, area to determine if either or both of subjects have been or are now in this area. U

AT PORTLAND, MAINE AND YORK BEACH, MAINE

Will locate summer home of JOHN "BLACKSMITH" VICCA and conduct appropriate investigation to determine if subjects could be residing there. U

ADMINISTRATIVE:

On 10/15/69 the Phoenix Division furnished the following information: U

The delay in covering this lead occurred as a result of a change of personnel in the Tucson Resident Agency handling top echelon criminal informants and the subsequent need for the new Agent to re-establish contact with these informants and gain their confidence. U

On 10/13/69, PX 777-C-TE advised this source had never heard of subject VENDITUOLI nor one FRANK VENDI. U

On 10/13/69, PX 796-PC advised that the names of the subjects have not come to the attention of this source during association with figures of organized crime in Tucson. U

BS 166-845

On 10/14/69, PX 713-PC advised this source has no information concerning the whereabouts of subjects and knows neither one of them.

The above information should not be disseminated outside the FBI in order to protect the identities of the informants.

Informants and sources of the Boston Division have been repeatedly contacted concerning the present whereabouts of fugitives MANOCCHIO and VENDITUOLI, however, no information has been developed in this regard.

On 4/1/70, BS 1131-PC advised SA MARTIN P. CONLEY that he had received information to the effect that during the Labor Day weekend of 1969, VENDITUOLI was at the Blue Lake Fair, in Maine.

Informant also said he heard VENDITUOLI is hiding in Maine and this information comes from general conversation in the Silver Lake area of Providence, Rhode Island.

Informant learned that JOHN "BLACKSMITH" VICCA of Providence, owns a summer home in York Beach, Maine area. It is possible that VENDITUOLI may be staying there. Informant was not certain of this fact.

For the information of the Bureau, delay in reporting occurred as a result of a change of personnel in the Providence Resident Agency handling Top Hoodlum Program and the Agent to whom this case was reassigned was at the trial of the subjects at the Providence Superior Court, Providence, Rhode Island from 2/16/70 to 3/27/70.

On 12/17/69 and 1/16/70, BA 1318-C-TE, an individual who is familiar with the Italian element in Baltimore, Maryland, advised that he has not seen nor heard of subject FRANK ANTHONY VENDITUOLI to be in Baltimore. Informant stated he feels that if VENDITUOLI were in town and in contact with FRANK ROSCITI, another acquaintance of informant's, he, the informant, would certainly know of VENDITUOLI'S presence in Baltimore.

NY 156-2516

On 12/18/63, NY 3949-C advised SA JOSEPH M. CHAPMAN that SAMUEL BIERMAN was one of two attorneys, who always represented Dr. VICTOR B. LONSON, who engaged in the sale of forged paintings.

In 1943, ERNEST ZIMET was one of a number of individuals involved in an alleged jewelry loss or theft which received considerable publicity in the NY press. ZIMET was a jeweler from Hungary, who came to the US in 1919, and who filed voluntary bankruptcy on November 23, 1931. At the time of the above jewelry loss, ZIMET operated a business at 515 Madison Ave., NY, NY, and was described as a loan shark. ZIMET, BENJAMIN FABRICANT and SAM BIERMAN, an attorney who had been engaged in loaning large sums of money at excessive rates, were involved in many transactions involving thousands of dollars in the year prior to the above jewelry loss.

Agency checks currently being conducted in the NY Division have not yet been completed. Boston will be advised immediately upon completion of such investigation.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EVERETT J. BICKFORD: U

On 2/24/70 subject's IO, along with other IOs, were displayed to BS 1251-PC. On this date the PC did not indicate that he had any information about the subject. U

On 2/27/70 BS 1251-PC telephonically advised the writer that he had heard that there was possibly someone residing at 241 Cedar Street, Manchester, New Hampshire, who was possibly identical with the subject. The source stated that this was primarily a Greek neighborhood and that the address was a large apartment house. U

On 3/3/70 the writer displayed subject's IO to FRANK DOLL, 235 Cedar Street, and to ATHENA VOUGARAKIS, 242 Cedar Street, and who is the owner of the large apartment building at 241 Cedar Street. Neither DOLL nor the owner of the apartment house could affect any identification or describe any Italians living within the building with whom the subject could possibly be staying. U

Also contacted was GARY GRANATIKAS, owner of Graham's Fruit Market, 209 Cedar Street, and results were negative. U

Observation of this apartment building at 241 Cedar Street, by the writer, reveals that it is in a somewhat rundown condition and does not appear to be the type of place the subject would choose as a hideout. U

No further investigation is being conducted at this time concerning the above matter. U
