glo 3/7

Re Washington Field airtel 11/7/67 captioned
"Carlos Marcello, aka., Anti-Racketeering."

Washington Field should not request former WF 1633-C-TE to obtain the photo described in referenced airtel from Jack Wasserman, subject's attorney.

New Orleans review appropriate news articles in an effort to obtain copies of appropriate news photos taken at the time of subject's arrival at New Orleans Airport and his attempted assault of an FBI Agent. Make no open inquiries in this regard.

cb

It is noted that a superseding indictment was obtained from a new grand jury on 6/1/67 because of possible questions concerning the impanelling of the grand jury originally indicting subject on this charge.

Keep the Bureau advised in this matter.

Re: Carlos Marcello

NOTE: Former WF 1633-C-TE was in recent personal contact with Carlos Marcello, a leading hoodlum and racketeer in Louisiana. Marcello related he had obtained a news photo showing him carrying his raincoat on the arm he allegedly used in an attempted assault on a Bureau Agent. WF 1633-C-TE later viewed this photo in possession of Marcello's attorney who also stated he had found an error in the impanelling of the Federal Grand Jury which indicted Marcello. New Orleans is being instructed to discreetly attempt to locate copies of news photos taken of Marcello at the time of the attempted assault. It is noted that Marcello was re-indicted on this charge by a new grand jury on 6/1/67 because of the possibility that the original grand jury which indicted him 10/7/66 was improperly impaneled. It is not clear which grand jury WF 1633-C-TE refers to.
