On 3/28/61, PG 615-C advised SA THOMAS G. FORSYTH, III as follows:

Recently, JO JO MANNARINO, brother of SAMUEL and GABRIEL MANNARINO, was in New Kensington, Pa., where his brothers control all gambling and have their legitimate enterprises headquartered. As has been pointed out in the past, JO JO is considered an outcast by his brothers, and he is supposed to be paid to stay away from New Kensington. His purpose in coming to town was to obtain money, and it was indicated that he was "broke" because of a large, expensive party he gave in the recent past at the Shamrock Hotel, Houston, Texas, under the name JOSEPH MANNERS. Rumor has it that JO JO has married a middle aged woman who has large lumber interests in either Georgia or Alabama.

Houston is requested to ascertain from the catering department, Shamrock Hotel, if they can furnish any information
