Re New York quarterly informant report captioned
"NY 4336-C-TE" and dated November 1, 1964.

Referenced quarterly report includes information from NY 4336-C-TE that, in view of the trouble between the Bonanno "family" and other La Cosa Nostra "families," one "Chichu Garofano" had been summoned from Italy to function as an arbitrator in this dispute.

New York should consider the possibility that the above individual referred to by NY 4336-C-TE may be identical with Frank Garofalo, former "underboss" of the Bonanno
"family," who returned to Italy shortly after the Apalachin meeting in November, 1957. You should make appropriate inquiry at INS to determine if Garofalo has recently returned to this country, or may be planning such a return.

Keep the Bureau advised of developments in this matter in view of the major importance of the Bonanno
"family's" dispute with other La Cosa Nostra groups.
