In connection with the top echelon criminal informant program and the investigation of DE 1027 PC, the following investigation was conducted by SA BARRON T. CONKLIN.

CSDE 931-C on November 13, 1964, furnished a list of toll calls of the telephone Avenue 4-2803, non-published, which is located at 1076 Linberg Avenue, in the name of PALAZZOLA, a relative of DE 1027 PC, who resides at the same address. Pertinent telephone calls were made to CAESER BADALAMENTI at 18860 Santa Marie, Mt. Clemens, a relative of "ROUGH" EMANUELE BADALAMENTI of Monroe, to J. TOCCO, 977 Langlois, Windsor, Ontario, a brother of WILLIAM "BLACK BILL" TOCCO of Detroit, and a telegram was sent to Italy.

This telegram was sent to ANTONIO VIVIANO, 294 Via Corso, Terrisini, Palermo, "arrived safely, yours truly, SALVATORE ALUGIOR ALUIA." The bill was paid by JIM PALAZZOLA.

ARTHUR LA VERDEIER of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Detroit, was contacted on December 7, 1964, and asked about SALVATORE ALUGI. LA VERDEIER stated that there was no reference to SALVATORE in their files but he heard about this person when investigating SALVATORE BARTOLOTTA, who now owns and operates the Frog Leg Inn in Erie, Michigan, and SAM PALAZZOLA of Monroe, Michigan, believed to be a brother of "WYANDOTTE" JIM and an uncle of DE 1027 PC.

He stated that in 1963, "ROUGH" EMANUELE BADALAMENTI and SAM were both supposed to go to Sicily. SAM did not go at the last moment and it is believed that ALUGI visited them in 1963 or 1964 and then returned to Sicily with "ROUGH" EMANUELE BADALAMENTI. "ROUGH" EMANUELE BADALAMENTI took a trip to Sicily in the summer of 1964, stayed two months, and returned. The purpose of the trip was to be married.

LA VERDEIER stated he has done a great deal of investigation in and around Monroe, Michigan, in an effort to determine the present citizenship status of "ROUGH" EMANUELE BADALAMENTI, SAM PALAZZOLA, SAM BARTOLOTTA and Wyandotte JIM PALAZZOLA. He stated years ago he heard about SALVATORE BADALAMENTI had been tried in absentee in Sicily many years ago, charged with being a member of the Mafia. He stated the INS was recently able to obtain a transcript of the trial which took place during 1928 in Palermo. A translation of this 28 page document is enclosed. He also furnished a five page appeal, which is likewise enclosed. Of those who were tried in absentee, the following are in this area:

5. SALVATORE BARTOLOTTA, son of TOMMASO, from Cinisi. This man is identical with SALVATORE BARTOLOTTA who resides in Erie, Michigan, and who operates the Frog Leg Inn.
7. VINCENZO PALAZZOLO, son of ANTONINO, who is believed to be WYANDOTTE JIM PALAZZOLA, father of DE 1027 PC, now deceased.
8. SALVATORE PALAZZOLO, son of the deceased GIUSEPPE from Cinisi, is believed to be the father of SAM PALAZZOLA, presently living in Monroe, Michigan, at 440 Riverview. SAM PALAZZOLA was born July 2, 1904, at Cinisi, Italy. He was naturalized December 3, 1928.

LA VERDEIER stated that the INS in Washington would have much more information than he had as to where these 11 persons went. He stated it is his understanding that ANTONIO PALAZZOLA, listed as number one, came to the United States, went to New York or Pennsylvania, and is now dead. Number two, GIOVANNI GIUNTA, came to the United States, resided at either Pennsylvania or California, and is now dead.

gation of FRANK CAMAROTA, a Detroit hoodlum who was deported and then allegedly entered the country. He stated that while investigating or trying to locate CAMAROTA, he learned that FILIPPO MARZELLO was convicted of a bank robbery in Pennsylvania in which the loot disappeared. Allegedly DOMINIC SCALISI from Cleveland dumped the proceeds of this bank robbery into the Jungle Inn in Youngstown, Ohio. In connection with his investigation of EMANUELE BADALAMENTI, LA VERDEIER stated that BADALAMENTI maintains a room at the Town and Country Motel, just north of Toledo, Ohio. This motel is owned and operated by SLICK SHAPERO. He spends considerable time in this room.

In connection with the second enclosure, the appeal dated August 13, 1927, no specific information is known about ANTONONIO CALANDRA listed as number one; SALAVATORE GUASTELLA, number two; SALAVATORE BARTOLOTTA, number three, is believed to be identical with the SAM BARTOLOTTA presently residing in Erie, Michigan; and nothing is known of GIOVANNI PALAZZOLO listed as number four.

LEADS

WASHINGTON FIELD

AT WASHINGTON, D.C.

1. Will contact the INS offices and review their records and determine, if possible, where in the United States all of these 14 persons immigrated to, and thereafter, set out leads where determined pertinent to determine their present activities.

2. Will review the records of INS and of the State Department to determine if SALVATORE ALUGI or ALUIA from Terrisini, Palermo, visited in Monroe or Detroit, Michigan, in 1963 or 1964. If a record of this person can be located, will review and furnish the information to the Detroit Division for Detroit file 137-3688.
