6. Type of case involved:

ANGELO BRUNO, a known member of Commission, La Cosa Nostra (LCN), head of Philadelphia Family, LCN.

7. Connection or status of subject in the case:

775 South 8th Street is property owned by ANGELO BRUNO. He periodically meets with his criminal associates, including all of the hierarchy of LCN in Philadelphia in rear office, 775 South 8th Street.

8. Specific information being sought:

Information being sought is illegal activities of ANGELO BRUNO, text of conversations BRUNO has with LCN associates, and to develop information that could possibly be utilized in prosecution of BRUNO or his associates.

9. Reasons for believing the specific information will be obtained by the technical surveillance:

See #7 and #8. PH 614-C-TE has advised that BRUNO continues periodically to meet criminal associates, rear office 775 South 8th Street. These meetings usually pertain to situations where BRUNO shrouds the meetings in secrecy.

10. Importance of case and subject:

Former PH 623-C* has indicated that it is extremely important to cover activity of ANGELO BRUNO.

11. Possibilities of obtaining desired information by other means
(Explain in detail):

Former PH 623-C*, which covered this premise, has proven that the scope and volume of extremely valuable information cannot be obtained by any other means.

12. Risks of detection involved:

Risk of detection involved appears to be remote. A specially constructed minimate was used. This minimate, fabricated by the Bureau, was made to fit into an old telephone cable no longer in use. It was installed and wrapped with the same tape that was used during the original installation of this cable. There are no telephone facilities in this room and it is not believed that the minimate could be located.

13. Probable length of technical surveillance:

90 day trial period.

14. Request made for technical surveillance by any outside agency
(name specific official, title and agency):

None
