SUBJECT: [CUBAN INTELLIGENCE MATTERS] (X)(u) INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

CLASSIFIED BY S668SD/KOL
DECLASSIFY ON: 25X (U)(G)
(JFK) 1/27/98

Supervisor Morgan of the Washington Field Office called this morning to advise that, according to WF 1134-S*, Lieutenant Joaquim Bertran, Assistant Cuban Military Attache, called Doris Saavedra, wife of the Cuban Military Attache, and told her not to attend the subcommittee meeting on the Hill today, where Pedro Diaz Lenz is to testify; that it would be too dangerous. He went on to say that Dos Santos had called him, and that Santos also was not attending because it would be too dangerous.

Pedro Diaz Lenz is the former head of the Cuban Air Force, who defected, and who is scheduled to testify before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. Pedro Dos Santos is a Brazilian national who has been assisting the Cuban Military Attache.

It is not clear from the comment whether the term "too dangerous" was intended to indicate that there might be some type of physical violence, or whether it was felt that from a propaganda and publicity point of view it would be dangerous to have persons present who could be identified as representatives of the present Cuban government.

On the basis of other information, it appears that the latter is probably the case. The Washington Field Office, however, was instructed to pass on to a reliable contact at the Capitol Police Force the substance of the above information, in general terms to protect the source. State has also been telephonically advised.
