Concerning the bonds sold by JURE SOLIS claimed to have sold thirteen out of fifteen bonds which were given to him. He claimed not to have received any money for the bonds that he has sold and he expects to receive the money shortly from those who have promised to pay. In addition, he has sold several bonds printed in English to Americans in $1.00 denominations. u

SOLIS claimed to have worked for the underground group MRP in the underground in Cuba before coming to the United States on August 22, 1961. The MRP was the underground group formerly headed by MANUEL RAY. u

SOLIS claimed that JURE still has underground in Cuba comprised of former members of the MRP, who now have an affiliation with JURE; however, he stated this information comes from the leaders of JURE and he has no specific information regarding this. u

aka, Diego Abich
ACTIVITIES OF DIEGO ABRAHAM ABICH CHAVAN FOR JURE IN NEWARK N.J. Cuban

On December 19, 1963 SJ T-4 advised an anti-CASTRO Cuban known only to SJ T-4 as Joe recently expressed an interest in securing arms. Joe, who has New Jersey telephone number FL 1-8936, claimed to be an agent for an unnamed purchaser whom he did not identify. u

Telephone number FL 1-8936 is listed to Diego Abich, 142 Jacques Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey. u

Joe asked about the prices of C-4 explosives and 1,000 hand grenades and asked for a complete list of arms and prices. u

N.J. JOSEPH ZICARELLI, a prominent New Jersey hoodlum, expressed an interest in filling the Cuban's order and quoted prices of arms and ammunition which the Cuban stated were a little high and he would have to contact his superiors for an answer. u

The records of the Newark Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) reveal that the full name of ABICH is DIEGO ABRAHAM ABICH CHAVAN and he resided at 142 Jacques Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey. u
