It should be pointed out to the Criminal Division of the Department that the information being furnished was obtained from a sensitive source on a strictly confidential basis, but no restriction to dissemination to the Department is intended.

A check of public source references and efforts by MEX-225 and MEX-170 have failed to reveal the operation of the Intercontinental Insurance and Security Co. in Mexico City, although as noted in the letterhead memorandum, this firm had several joint accounts at the Banco del Pais, S.A. with Cia. Azteca de Administracion, S.A.

It should be carefully noted that all information attributed to the three confidential sources is of a confidential nature and that these sources are not available to testify or to furnish depositions concerning same. ALFONSO FRIAS, Assistant Chief, Special Investigations Department of the Bank of Mexico, who arranged for a special review of Banco del Pais, S.A. records, advised a Bureau police liaison Agent that all information furnished at this time and additional information being obtained should be regarded as strictly confidential.

A second confidential source abroad, who is unavailable to testify or furnish a deposition and who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 12, 1963, as follows:

The records of the Mexican Immigration Service reflect that shortly after the incorporation of the Cia. Azteca de Administracion, S.A., on April 20, 1960, a series of letters was directed to the Mexican Immigration Service by this company in an effort to obtain authorization for STEWART B. HOPPS to assume charge of the company. After several refusals, said authorization was finally granted on June 13, 1961, but apparently HOPPS did not enter Mexico as the Mexican Government files fail to reflect any further action in this connection.

These same Mexican Government files reflect that JOHN M. KEARNEY (CLEARY) was born March 20, 1895, at La Plata, Maryland, and entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 20, 1920, and was engaged for many years at Veracruz and vicinity as an employee of oil companies (not specified). He is married to MARIA TERESA NOLAN and he became a Mexican citizen on April 20, 1945.

The records of the Visa Section of the American Embassy reflect that JOHN KEARNEY (CLEARY), Mexican citizen, born March 20, 1895, at La Plata, Maryland, with residence at Rio Tamesis #3, Mexico City, was issued visas on January 3, 1961, and December 26, 1962. He has an unlimited visa to travel to the United States until December 26, 1963. Efforts were made to locate KEARNEY at the above address; however, at this address there is now located a singing school.

A third confidential source abroad, who is unavailable to testify or furnish a deposition and who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 28, 1963, as follows:
