SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on March 6, 1958, in discussing his association with LA ROCCA, stated that in 1943, LA ROCCA invited him to share equally in the ownership of the Coin Machine Distributing Company, which later set up offices at 5746 Baum Boulevard, Pittsburgh.

T-3 described other owners of the company in addition to himself and LA ROCCA as ~~FRANK AMATO~~ (Top Hoodlum), SAM MANNARINO (Top Hoodlum), ~~F. W. ZOGG~~ and ~~BARNEY MCGINLEY~~. T-3 recalled that although each of the six men mentioned above owned an equal share in the company that MANNARINO and LA ROCCA seemed to run everything and held meetings at which important topics were discussed in the Italian language. T-3 advised that he did not understand the Italian language and added that he realized that LA ROCCA was only using him for his proven protection methods and did not mind as long as he got his cut out of the profits. T-3 said his protection was the then Superintendent of Police (fnu) SCOTT. ~~PA~~

T-3 recalled that ~~FRANK VALENTI~~ and ~~TONY RIFEPI~~ visited the offices of the Coin Machine Distributing Company regularly and always took orders from MANNARINO and LA ROCCA. T-3 stated that in his opinion he would place LA ROCCA and MANNARINO as the two men who control the rackets in Western Pennsylvania, and he sees ~~MIKE GENOVESE~~ as the logical successor to the top position. ~~PA~~

T-3 recalled that around 1947, labor leader ~~NICK STIRONE~~ visited the offices of the Coin Machine Distributing Company and asked SAM MANNARINO to get some "gorillas" to work over some men who were giving STIRONE trouble in connection with the construction of a highway being built in the Monroeville section. According to T-3, the job was done for STIRONE by MANNARINO who became very angry when he learned his men had hurt some older Italian men working on the construction job. T-3 said that MANNARINO was under the impression when he was approached by STIRONE that the men who were giving the labor trouble were younger men and he (MANNARINO) let STIRONE know what they thought of him in front of T-3. ~~PA~~

On November 22, 1957, T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that in the Pittsburgh, Pa., area, FRANK AMATO of Braddock, Pa., is the "real boss" of the rackets.

~~SECRET~~

T-4, on November 22, 1957, stated that MIKE GENOVESE is the prodigy of JOHN LA ROCCA and will eventually succeed LA ROCCA in the latter's many gambling interests.

T-4, on September 4, 1954, stated that JOHN LA ROCCA, was at that time, "the boss" of gambling operations in the tri-state area and holds an interest in every big game.

Lieutenant JACK STACK, NA, Pittsburgh, Pa., Police Department, on December 16, 1957, advised SA JOHN D. ANTHONY that ANTONIO (TONY) RIPEPI of 4720 Brownsville Road, Whitehall, Pa., a naturalized American citizen, has for many years controlled numbers operations and gambling establishments in the vicinity of Pittsburgh. STACK said that during the past five or six years RIPEPI has been investing his resources in legitimate businesses.

FRANK JOSEPH VALENTI, 1384 Highland Ave., Rochester, New York, formerly 4606 Brownsville Road, Pittsburgh, Pa., was in 1953, according to JAMES O'CONNOR, then Chief Identification Officer, Pittsburgh, Pa., Police Department, considered the Number One racketeer in the City of Pittsburgh. O'CONNOR said that it was alleged that VALENTI had to give his personal approval before any new gambling or numbers operations could open in Pittsburgh.

MIKE GEORGE HAZIDAKIS PA

T-1, on February 24, 1958, pointed out that he has known HAZIDAKIS since 1932, and added that for the past 12 to 15 years HAZIDAKIS has been a trusted lieutenant of the MANNARINO organization, directly responsible to KELLY MANNARINO. T-1 went on to say that at the present time HAZIDAKIS, along with JOHN FONTANA, is actively supervising the Barbout and crap games operating on the second floor of the building next to the Ken-Mar Hotel and has the direct responsibility for holding large amounts of cash and making a final accounting of the proceeds taken in each night to the MANNARINO brothers. T-1 mentioned that on many occasions KELLY MANNARINO has told him that he trusts HAZIDAKIS implicitly in money matters and has absolutely no hesitancy in relying on him to turn over every cent made on the gambling tables.

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

By way of background information, T-1 explained that around 1932, HAZIDAKIS was convicted in U. S. District Court, Pittsburgh, for giving false testimony at a naturalization hearing in which he testified that a fellow countryman from Greece was deserving of citizenship in the United States and had no prior convictions. According to T-1, the individual seeking citizenship had several past arrests which were brought to light and HAZIDAKIS was convicted and sentenced to serve several months in the Westmoreland County Jail. T-1 pointed out that HAZIDAKIS has a wife and teen-age son living in Athens, Greece, and that HAZIDAKIS has told him on many occasions that he is very proud of the son's scholastic ability and the progress he is making in high school. T-1 stated that from conversations with HAZIDAKIS he believes the son, in addition to attending high school in Athens, is receiving private instructions from a tutor, and that the boy apparently is possessed with a very high IQ.

T-1 went on to say that in his opinion HAZIDAKIS is worth at least a half million dollars in American money and would actually like to return to Athens, Greece, permanently if it were not for KELLY MANNARINO and his influence over him. T-1 explained that about a year ago HAZIDAKIS visited his family in Athens and indicated to him before he left that he might stay in Greece permanently. T-1 stated that several months later, after HAZIDAKIS returned from Greece and from conversations with him, he gathered that KELLY MANNARINO either ordered HAZIDAKIS back to the United States or sent someone over to Greece to bring him back. T-1 said that HAZIDAKIS is actually terrified of KELLY MANNARINO and in his opinion only stays in the United States for fear of winding up with a bullet in his head if he refuses to follow KELLY MANNARINO's orders. According to T-1, HAZIDAKIS is also afraid that he is dying of cancer and has consulted many doctors and visited several of the major medical clinics in the United States where he has been assured that he does not have cancer, but he still continues to worry over the situation needlessly.

In regard to real estate holdings in Greece, T-1 stated that he recently learned that the office building owned by HAZIDAKIS is located in Perias, Greece, rather than Athens, and described the building as a large office-type building, occupied for the most part by doctors and professional men with the main floor of the building being leased out to merchants.

T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 18, 1958, furnished the following information:

On February 6, 1958, information was received from Mr. JACK LIEBOF, Assistant Protection Officer, U. S. Embassy, Mexico, D.F., that on the night of January 22, 1958, he had received a telephone call from one ROBERT TEEMER, who stated that his uncle, C. F. TEEMER, had been arrested by the Secret Service of the Metropolitan Police of the Federal District, and was being held at Police Headquarters. According to LIEBOF, ROBERT TEEMER insisted that the former should go to the Police Station and make available to the uncle, blankets and appropriate food in view of the fact that the uncle was ill and suffering from ulcers or some other stomach disorder.

ROBERT TEEMER admitted to LIEBOF that his uncle was a professional gambler, and as a result, LIEBOF refused to take any action with respect to the alleged apprehension.

On the following day, ROBERT TEEMER appeared at the Protection Section and spoke briefly to the Protection Officer, Mr. JOHN WILSON, advising the latter that he and C. F. TEEMER were at the Reforma Hotel. WILSON gave little sympathy to the representation of ROBERT TEEMER and no record of the matter was made at the Protection Section.

According to T-5, the files of the Reforma Hotel reflect that C. F. TEEMER and ROBERT TEEMER had arrived at that hotel on the evening of January 20, 1958, and had departed on the afternoon of January 23, 1958. Personnel of the hotel claimed to have no information regarding the alleged apprehension of C. F. TEEMER. (C-1)(u)

T-5 stated that a check of the identification and arrest records of the Metropolitan Police was made by the Identification Chief, Colonel CARLOS ESPINOSA FELIX, without locating any record of the apprehension of C. F. or CHARLES TEEMER. (C-1)(u)

Colonel MANUEL MENDOZA, Chief of the Secret Service, advised T-5 that he was not aware of any arrest by personnel under his supervision of any Americans in connection with gambling activities but stated that his agents in the recent past, had raided and closed all known gambling establishments operating in the Federal District. He mentioned in particular a luxurious and high class gambling club which was being managed by one CRISTOBAL MARTINEZ ZORRILLA in the "Lomas de Chapultepec" residential area of Mexico City. (C-1)(u)

T-5, on January 14, 1958, was informed by T-6, who is in a position to furnish reliable information, that CRISTOBAL MARTINEZ ZORRILLA was reported to be operating a luxurious gambling club in the "Lomas de Chapultepec" area of Mexico City at Calle Montanas Rocallosas, 310 Poniente. T-6 stated he had learned that ZORRILLA is a contact of one ALFONSO TREVINO, who is reported to smuggle arms to Cuba and to reside at 1302 East Washington St., Brownsville, Texas, telephone: Lincoln 2-2734. (C-1)(u)

T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised T-5 (date of contact unknown) that MARTINEZ ZORRILLA is an agent of the Federal Security Police (DFS) who has acted as the intermediary in paying off DFS personnel in behalf of the Cuban Government in the amount of $5,000 American money per month. (C-1)(u)

T-5 stated that the files of the Mexican Department of Immigration of the Ministry of Government failed to disclose any information identifiable with CHARLES FREDERICK TEEMER, SAMUEL or GABRIEL MANNARINO. (C-1)(u)

CHARLES FREDERICK TEEMER, FBI #4307432, on March 17, 1958, advised SAS JOHN S. PORTELLA and GENE H. STUDEBAKER that the MANNARINO brothers have a major interest in a number of slot machines now operating in the interior of Cuba under the supervision of NORMAN ROTHMAN, FBI #142585B.

T-9 stated that on the basis of three years experience of working in the Genovese Cocktail Lounge in association with hoodlums of the Pittsburgh area, that she would consider SAM MANNARINO the chief racketeer in Western Pennsylvania with ~~SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA~~, his immediate underling. T-9 also mentioned that ~~PHIL GENOVESE~~, brother of MIKE GENOVESE, is close to the MANNARINO brothers.

T-10, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on January 21, 1953, stated that HYMAN MARTIN has been connected with the gambling rackets in the Pittsburgh area for many years.

Meetings at Ken Iron and Steel Company

T-1, on March 10, 1958, stated that based on conversations with WILLIE SAMS, he knows from personal knowledge that WILLIE meets with SAM MANNARINO practically every day in the latter's office at the Ken Iron and Steel Company, and undoubtedly discusses in detail their widespread gambling activities in Westmoreland County. T-1 also said that when SAM MANNARINO is in New Kensington, he is also visited in his office by his brother, KELLY, JOHN FONTANA, KELLY's bodyguard, TOM TANNAS, and Captain JOHN BORDINARO of the New Kensington Police Department. T-1 added that it is not uncommon for all of these men to meet with SAM MANNARINO, either collectively or individually several times a week from around 10:00 am to 12:00 noon at the offices of the Ken Iron and Steel Company. PA

PA T-2, on March 7, 1958, stated that he has visited SAM MANNARINO in his office at the Ken Iron and Steel Company many times since 1952, and has often observed TOM TANNAS, WILLIE SAMS, JOHN FONTANA and PHIL BETTOR, accountant for SAM MANNARINO, either leaving after a visit with SAM or waiting for an appointment in his office. the Greensburg State Police Post since 1921, and furnished the following information regarding the influence of the MANNARINO organization in Greensburg:

T-1 described Captain MARONEY as a honest and dedicated law enforcement officer who, since his transfer to the Greensburg Post around 1954, has often confided to him that he would like very much to crack down on the influence of the MANNARINO organization but is actually powerless to do so. By way of background explanation, T-1 pointed out that during the period, 1951-1952, after serving for a brief period as acting warden of the Western State Penitentiary in Pittsburgh, MARONEY was transferred to the Pennsylvania State Police Post at Washington, Pa., some distance from his home in Greensburg, Pa., and was most anxious to arrange a transfer to Greensburg, as quickly as possible in order to be near his family. T-1 explained that around 1954, he visited MARONEY at the Washington State Police Post and that MARONEY expressed extreme bitterness over the fact that JOHN DENT, now a Congressman in the U. S. House of Representatives, who was then in Harrisburg, Pa., had promised him a transfer to Greensburg, but had not made good on that promise. T-1 stated that several weeks later he happened to see DENT personally and mentioned to DENT that MARONEY appeared to be very unhappy with his assignment in Washington, Pa., to which DENT replied that MARONEY would soon be transferred to Greensburg, providing proper arrangements could be worked out with him as to the manner in which he would enforce the law in Westmoreland County. T-1 said that within two weeks time MARONEY was transferred to the Greensburg Post and that in many conversations with MARONEY since that time, the latter has implied that he was compelled to promise TOM TANNAS, the contact man, of the MANNARINO organization and City Clerk of Arnold, Pa., that he would not take any action in line with his official duties to disrupt gambling in New Kensington or Arnold, Pa., without first clearing with the County District Attorney who, according to T-1, is backed by TANNAS and the MANNARINO organization.

T-1 said that EARL KIME (phonetic), the present district attorney for Westmoreland County, would like very much to run for the vacancy on the County Bench created by the recent death of County Judge BAUER, but that TANNAS has instructed him to stay in his present position as district attorney, where he can do the most good for the MANNARINO organization.

PA T-1 stated that in his opinion any approach to the present district attorney for Westmoreland County or First Sergeant JOHN P. HELFENSTEIN of the Greensburg State Police Post on behalf of the FBI or any law enforcement agency would result in the MANNARINO brothers being notified within "five minutes." T-1 said that from personal knowledge he knows that Sergeant HELFENSTEIN has been paid regularly by GABRIEL MANNARINO for the past 15 years, and would not hesitate to do anything to protect them. T-1 added that Captain MARONEY has told him on many occasions that he is "disgusted" over the circumstances under which he must assume his command at the Greensburg Post but has pointed out that he only has a few years left before retirement and has tried to rationalize the situation in this manner.

PA In regard to influence over the Westmoreland County Detective Bureau, T-1 stated that Chief of Detectives BARNEY TURNER, in his opinion, is one of the most "crooked" law enforcement officers he has ever met since he started earning his living as a professional gambler back in 1917. T-1 stated that from personal knowledge he knows that TURNER has been accepting money from SAM and KELLY MANNARINO ever since he has been a county detective and is actually paid by TOM TANNAS. T-1 emphasized that if a violation within the jurisdiction of the Westmoreland County Detective Bureau, that concerned the MANNARINO organization, was uncovered by a Federal investigative agency and such information were disseminated to the Westmoreland County Detective Bureau, TOM TANNAS or the MANNARINO brothers would be forewarned by Chief TURNER immediately after the information was received.

Alleged Control of Numbers and Horse Betting, Uniontown, Pa.

Chief of Police A. W. DAVIS, Assistant Chief of Police JAMES MAHONEY, NA, Uniontown, Pa., and Sergeant H. M. JAYNES, Pennsylvania State Police Substation, Uniontown, Pa., on March 21, 1958, advised SA CARL L. SHERWOOD that based on approximately 20 years experience in law enforcement and investigating the activities of hoodlums in Uniontown, Pa., and Fayette County, Pa., they have never received any information indicating that the MANNARINO brothers exercise any influence in Uniontown or Fayette County whatsoever.

On February 26, 1958, a spot surveillance was maintained on subject's residence by SA RICHARD GORDON DOUCE; however, the subject was not observed and no activity was noted.

On March 6, 1958, WILLIAM JEFFERSON, Superintendent of Schools, New Kensington, Pa., was interviewed to determine his attitude toward acting as a neighborhood source with reference to subject's activities. JEFFERSON stated that he would be more than happy to assist the FBI but pointed out that he is rarely home on weekends and since his wife is regularly employed as an instructor at the University of Pittsburgh and never home during the week he did not feel they could thoroughly cover subject's activities.

JFK Act 6 (4)

JEFFERSON suggested, however, that Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] of 216 Highland Ave., would be ideally suited for the assignment, not only from the geographical location of their home in relation to subject's home, but also because of their excellent character and unsympathetic attitude insofar as racketeers are concerned.

JEFFERSON observed that Mrs. [redacted] is in the best position in the neighborhood to not only observe the general activities occurring in subject's home but can also observe automobiles stopping at subject's residence without having to leave her living room. JEFFERSON added that the majority of subject's neighbors are either quite elderly people or spend a good deal of their time during the day away from their homes. JEFFERSON expressed the opinion that the other logical choices who could follow subject's activities, the elderly families residing at 202 and 206 Highland Ave., would not be in a position to obtain license numbers of automobiles without leaving their residence and in addition, might be afraid to follow and report as to subject's activities because of his national reputation as a racketeer. JEFFERSON also commented that on the basis of his limited association with the elderly families living at 202 and 206 Highland he could not in all fairness describe them as the most discreet type of individuals.

Polk's City Directory for New Kensington and Arnold, Pa., 1957 Edition, lists the following individuals as residents in the immediate vicinity of subject's home at 201 Highland Ave.:

Mrs. [] 216 Highland Ave., (telephone number: Edison 5-7733) on March 17, 1958, was interviewed at length regarding her personal opinion of the MANNARINO family. Mrs. [] stated that both she and her husband were well aware of subject's reputation as a hoodlum and racketeer as outlined in the press and added that she would be glad to cooperate with the FBI in covering subject's activities in the interest of good citizenship. She stated, however, that she felt obligated to first correspond with Mr. [], who is on an extended business trip to Japan and the Philippines Islands, in order to obtain his permission as a matter of family courtesy. WALTER J. SHARKEY, PCI

PCI

The lead to recontact Former PG-511-C has not been covered due to the unavailability of the informant.

PCI WALTER J. SHARKEY has been confined to his home and place of business since last contact for the purpose of caring for his teen-aged daughter who is recovering from a serious leg injury suffered as a result of a fall while horseback riding. Consequently, SHARKEY has not been in a position to develop any information but has indicated that his daughter's health is improving to the point where he will soon be free to develop additional information of interest to this case.
