This will refer to your memorandum of February 13, 1961, advising that you have solicited the views of the Central Intelligence Agency concerning this matter and that we would be subsequently furnished your opinion regarding the need for further investigation.

For your additional information, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 21, 1961, that the Cuban radio made several broadcasts that day announcing seizure of a boat and capture of an American and four Cuban counterrevolutionaries at Cabanas, Pinar del Rio, with arms and ammunition. The broadcasts identified the Cubans as Gilberto Betancourt, Francisco Garcia, Marciano Belo Martinez and Augusto Marvel. The American's name was not distinguishable to the source. The March 22, 1961, issue of the "Miami Herald" carried an article entitled "Yank, Four Others Seized in Cuba With Arms Load," Associated Press, Havana. The news article announced the capture of five men, including an American who was identified as August MacNair, in an arms-laden motor launch. The launch was identified as the "Mercury" and, according to the article, the announcement of the capture of this group followed reports that rebel forces had started a major buildup in the hills of Pinar del Rio Province where substantial numbers were awaiting the arrival of arms.

On March 22, 1961, Angus K. McNair, Coral Gables, Florida, advised his son, Angus McNair, Jr., had been arrested by Cuban authorities the previous day when located in a boat loaded with guns. McNair stated his son had been recently associated with Frank Fiorini who is an American adventurer and self-professed leader of a group of anti-Castro individuals. McNair last saw his son on March 4, 1961, at which time McNair, Jr., announced he was leaving for Cuba. For your information, McNair, Sr., is an accountant in a Miami law firm in which Senator George Smathers of Florida is an inactive member.

On the night of March 21, 1961, another source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that Orlando Bosch, who is a civilian delegate of the Movimiento Insurreccional de Recuperacion Revolucionaria in Miami, learned of the seizure by Cuban authorities of this group in Cuba. He identified Marciano Belo, also known as Guajira, as being among this group. Bosch confided the group had been taken by the boat "Jolly Roger" to a point off the coast at Cabanas, Pinar del Rio Province, where they were transported by skiff to the shore at which point they were apparently apprehended.

On March 22, 1961, Inspector Willis Smithson of the United States Border Patrol, Miami, advised that on March 11, 1961, the "Jolly Roger" was reported in the Florida Keys with Angus K. McNair, Jr., and eight unnamed Cubans on board. On March 12, 1961, the "Jolly Roger" was reported in the Key West, Florida, area with Elidio C. Surf y Goichoeca, Cuban alien, on board. On March 19, 1961, the "Jolly Roger" arrived at the Lower Matacombe Key near Key West and as of March 22, 1961, it was at this location having loaded eight 55-gallon fuel drums on board. Captain Enrique Rodriguez Ibanez of the "Jolly Roger" has been ordered to report to the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Miami.

On March 21, 1961, the Central Intelligence Agency advised the captured group could possibly be an independent operation of the Frente Revolucionario Democratico, an anti-Castro unity organization, but that Central Intelligence Agency had no operational interest in this matter and it is in possession of no knowledge regarding the "Mercury." ~~(S)~~ (U)

For your additional information, the first source mentioned in this letter advised that Gilberto Betancourt was arrested in 1957 by the Batista government on a bombing
