Remylet 9/12/68.

On 9/20/68 the Service de Documentation Exterieur et de Contre-Espionnage (SDECE) furnished a two-page report in the French language concerning subject's activities while in Paris. In addition, the SDECE furnished a photo copy of the contents of subject's address book for a very brief period and that due to the delicate circumstances involved, some of the pages photographed had not come out too well. (S)

Bureau requested to have the report translated and the results of the translation, together with the photo copy of the address book furnished New York. A copy of the translation should also be furnished to Legats London and Paris for information. (S)

In the event any additional information is received from our sources Bureau and interested offices will be advised.

M E M O R A N D U M

Subject: Susan Heiligman Frank
Reference: Your V - 4647 dated August 7, 1968

Your request and the interest that your Service has in this matter have been given our full attention.

The facts that Susan Heiligman Frank was in France and that the S. N. (sic - Securite Nationale /?/ - National Security) was alerted on this same subject (since it is under the jurisdiction of the S. N.) have limited our possibilities of action. Nevertheless, we are happy to be able to forward to you the following information which we have gathered:

- Susan Heiligman Frank, called Susan Warren, seems to be a propagator of People's (Red) China;
- she receives the information bulletin called "Hsin Hua" ("New China") which is published by the agency bearing the same name in London;
- she is a journalist specialized in questions concerning the Far East;
