CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
WEEKLY SUMMARY
DALLAS DIVISION

Re Dallas airtel to Bureau dated 12/21/64.

RE: JAMES HENRY DOLAN aka
AR
(DL 92-292) (DL 166-154)

The Las Vegas Division advised that DOLAN was arrested by the Reno, Nevada PD on 12/14/64, on a Sedgwick County, Kansas, warrant with bond being set at $5,000. At the time of arrest DOLAN had $1,280.90 in cash on his person and bond was immediately posted by Mrs. IKE COLVIN of the Ike Colvin Bonding Company, Reno, Nevada.

[Handwritten mark]

DOLAN was very uncooperative and did not discuss anything with police officers, claiming that his arrest was based on a "bum rap and they tried to do the same thing to me in Texas." Located in DOLAN's possession was a bill of sale dated 12/9/64, indicating one JIMMY WIMBERLY, Route 1, Vinton, Louisiana, purchased a 1965 Ford, two door Custom 500 from Donaldson Ford Company, Sulphur, Louisiana.

On 12/17/64, Mrs. [redacted] PCI of the Las Vegas Division, advised that DOLAN was referred to her by his attorney, LORIN D. PARRAGUIRRE. [redacted] stated that from the attorney's general manner, it was obvious he was very friendly with DOLAN, or more so than an attorney is with the normal client. In information furnished to the bonding company, DOLAN furnished a fictitious address in Reno, Nevada and also gave a fictitious home address indicating that he was previously from Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The above information was furnished to Detective H. M. HART, CIS, Dallas PD and to Deputy Sheriff BOB MORGAN, Dallas County SO, on 12/28/64.

RE: GAMBLING ACTIVITIES
DALLAS DIVISION
(DL 162-1)

On 12/23/64, DL 181-C-TE, advised that Mrs. ~~JERRY ROSENBERG~~, widow of the late JERRY ROSENBERG, has evidently taken over his job with the Flamingo Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, in that she has arranged for a chartered flight to leave Dallas, Texas, approximately January 8, 1965, for Las Vegas, Nevada. Informant related that the hotel invites different individuals from the Dallas area to be their guest at the hotel for several days and that their airplane fare is paid for by the hotel, as well as their lodging at the Flamingo Hotel.

The above information was furnished to Detective H. M. HART, CIS, Dallas PD and to Deputy Sheriff BOB MORGAN, Dallas County SO, on 12/28/64.

On 12/24/64, ED HASKINS, Intelligence Section, Internal Revenue Service, Dallas, advised that W. E. DAWES, 1115 Ellenwood, Dallas, Texas, had purchased an Occupational Wagering Stamp in Oklahoma stating that he would have exclusive rights to wagering at the Hugo, Oklahoma game fights which are scheduled to be held in that area.

DAWES is a known gambler and bootlegger who has operated in the Dallas area for years. The Dallas PD received information in 1962 that DAWES had arranged for a chicken fight somewhere in South Dallas and after the spectators had arrived at the location,

DAWES held up the spectators taking their money. According to PD records, no complaint was filed by any of the participants in that they were also in actual violation of the law attending such a sporting event and wagering on the fights.

The above information was furnished to Detective H. M. HART, CIS, Dallas PD and Deputy Sheriff BOB MORGAN, Dallas County SO on 12/28/64.

RE: RUSSELL DOUGLAS MATTHEWS aka
ITAR - GAMBLING
(DL 166-102)

On 12/23/64, DL 181-C-TE advised he had recently talked with MATTHEWS and learned from MATTHEWS that MATTHEWS is presently residing in Euless, Texas. Informant related MATTHEWS indicated that he was living approximately three blocks back behind Buddies Supermarket which is located near Highway 183. MATTHEWS indicated to informant that he has not been traveling lately and has spent most of his time gambling at the Redman's Club located at 1606 Young Street, Dallas. Informant stated that MATTHEWS continues to drive his 1964 light blue Oldsmobile.

RE: UNSUB aka Jim Dooland
IGA
(DL 162-New)

On 12/23/64, DL 181-C-TE advised he had learned that an individual using the name JIM DOOLAND is presently taking bets on Dallas telephone number DAVIS 7-1159. Informant stated he was unaware of the individual's identity nor is he acquainted with any of his bettors.

TEXAS

Records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company reveal that telephone number DAVIS 7-1159 is listed to a F. W. GREER, Apartment 104, 1041 Knob Oak, Dallas.

Checks with the Dallas PD, Dallas County SO and the Retail Merchants Credit Association were negative concerning the names F. W. GREER and JIM DOOLAND.

The above information was furnished to Detective H. M. HART, CIS, Dallas PD and Deputy Sheriff BOB MORGAN, Dallas County SO, on 12/28/64.
