PARTIDO REVOLUCIONARIO DEL PUEBLO

Source advised that Cosme Garcia of 814 44th Street, Brooklyn, New York, telephone number 438-4354, has been given the assignment of contacting individuals who were jailed under Castro and subsequently escaped or were released and now reside in the United States.

NK T-3, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised on February 27, 1973, as follows:

Source advised that on the evening of Saturday, February 24, 1973, he attended a meeting of the PRP upstairs over the Broadway Restaurant on Park Avenue, in Union City, New Jersey, as an invited guest of Israel Romero. Source advised that the following listed individuals were present at the meeting and were characterized as leaders of the PRP:

Enrique Barroso
Orlando Castro
Emilio Guede
Angel Larramendi
Manuel Ray
Israel Romero
Tony Santiago
Roberto Soto
Manuel Urrutia
Arturo Villar
Jose Gomez (a Cuban of Chinese appearance)
Mario Rivadulla

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION
CUBA, N.Y.

Source advised that he believes the PRP really wants re-establishment of relations with Cuba, in opposition to their publically expressed position of opposition to recognition.

Source advised that he feels the strategy of the PRP is to be available as a viable political force to return to Cuba in the event relations are re-established.

In connection with individuals not present at the meeting but known to be members of the leadership of the PRP, source advised as follows:

N.Y. Napoleon Seuc is believed to be of Arabic nationality and was probably a member of the Arabic Community located in Havana prior to Castro's rise to power. He advised that Seuc would probably have an associate of Levy Farah, who currently holds a high position in the Cuban government under Castro in the area of Economic Development. Farah was a member of the
