Administrator
Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs
Department of State

ATTENTION: SAC, NEW YORK:

Reurairtel 4/13/64.

Expedite the submission of a current report regarding the subject's activities.

NOTE:

*(DOS INFO
DECLASSIFIED
PER AFD 14/1/97)*

Subject applied for a passport on 2/18/64 and State Department requested advice regarding the possible availability of various specific sources of this Bureau to testify at an administrative hearing. The above source is former NY [2724]-S who was contacted by Los Angeles on 4/23/64. This former source prefers not to testify. Los Angeles indicates former NY [2724]-S has potential to become a productive source in Los Angeles and Los Angeles considering reactivation of this former informant. Los Angeles recommends former NY [2724]-S not be released and State Department being advised as noted above. New York has previously advised no additional admissible evidence available regarding subject's Communist Party membership since 10/20/61. Internal Security Division of the Department on 5/1/64 advised insufficient evidence available to establish subject's Communist Party membership subsequent to July, 1961, and, therefore, prosecution not being instituted.

This letter is classified "Confidential" as information relates to possible action to be taken against the subject which could involve current informants, the disclosure of whom could adversely affect the national defense.
