Re New York letter dated 9/18/63 and Albany letter dated 10/16/63.

Philadelphia is office of origin in the case entitled "CARMELITA HINTON; SM - C," Bureau file 105-36392, Philadelphia file 105-1964. CARMELITA HINTON is a 73 year old woman who in the past has frequently visited a daughter, Mrs. JEAN ROSNER, who formerly lived at 620 Haydock Lane, Haverford, Pa.

On 7/22/63, IP 3002-S furnished a written report to SA HAYES S. KING, which is maintained in Indianapolis file 134-189-A-2732. This report indicated that during the period 6/23-28/63 the annual meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) was held at the YMCA Camp, Estes Park, Colo. According to a list prepared by officials of the WILPF, one of those in attendance was HINTON, CARMELITA, 620 Haydock Lane, Haverford, Pa. - National Board.

On 6/24/63, CARMELITA HINTON made a report on China to the WILPF annual meeting, advising that she had visited her daughter in China from July 1962 to June 1963. Her daughter's husband is in charge of a Chinese commune. CARMELITA HINTON said she entered China from Russia.

The July 1963 issue of "Four Lights," self-described as published by the WILPF, carried on page 1 a report on the National Convention held at Estes Park, Colo., and reported that CARMELITA HINTON gave a firsthand report on China.

Referenced New York letter and letterhead memorandum indicated that the following name appeared on a typewritten list of names in the possession of the subject. This list of names was in a folder marked "Committee For A Review Of Our Chinese Policy."

BODDE, DERK
Graduate School of Arts & Science
Professor of Chinese
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia 4, Pennsylvania

In connection with the case entitled "Cominfil, Women Strike for Peace" (New York file 100-146684, Philadelphia file 100-46020), New York has been furnished Philadelphia letter and letterhead memorandum dated 7/17/63 captioned "GALIA BODDE, nee SPESHNEFF, aka Mrs. Derk Bodde; SM - C." This Philadelphia letterhead memorandum furnished a characterization of DERK BODDE and his wife, GALIA BODDE.

DERK BODDE is the subject of Bureau file 100-387911, Philadelphia file 100-21984.

Dr. WILLIAM H. DU BARRY, Executive Vice-President, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa., (protect by request) advised on 4/25/52 that although he had no specific information which would indicate Communist activity or membership on the part of Professor DERK BODDE, it was indicated to the informant that as a result of BODDE's statements and activities he might have Communist sympathies or be involved in Communist activities.

PH 27-S on 5/27/57 made available a letter dated 5/8/57 prepared on the stationery of the National Council of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC), which bore a printed list of the members of the ECLC National Council. Listed among these was Professor DERK BODDE.

On 9/17/63, LA 3512-S furnished SA ROY ANDREW PETERS with a partial list of sponsors for the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee. This list included the name Professor DERK BODDE, University of Pennsylvania.

PH 105-9310

An article appeared in "The Daily Pennsylvanian," a student newspaper published at the University of Pennsylvania, in the edition dated 1/24/63, which purported to be a portrait of Dr. BODDE. This article said that DERK BODDE was one of the country's foremost Sinologists and went on to say that he was a champion of liberal causes, was one of the "peacemongers" who petitioned the President over Cuba last fall, favors recommendation of Communist China and feels that Communist China should be admitted to the United Nations.

On 9/12/60, EUGENE T. LYDDONE, Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court, made available to SA O. MICHAEL SMASAL a brief for Amici Curiae, which indicates the Communist Party of the United States, Petitioner, v. Subversive Activities Control Board, Recipient. In Appendix A there was set out the names and addresses by city and state of these Amici Curiae. Professor DERK BODDE was one of those so listed.

On 9/30/60, Dr. ARLEIGH P. HESS, JR., Director, College of General Studies, University of Pennsylvania, advised SA EDWARD A. SMITH that DERK BODDE was one of those who attended the International Congress of Orientalists in Moscow in August 1960.

On 9/28/62, PH 27-S advised that DERK BODDE was one of the signers of a letter dated 8/15/62, which urged the recipient to work for the parole of MORTON SOBELL. Contributions were to be sent to Citizens for Justice for Morton Sobell.
