except they are of Spanish-American extraction and they had lived there for about six months before he, BRIGHT, began living in the neighborhood. BRIGHT says he knows nothing more about these individuals. He said he could not remember whether they had had any stickers or signs displayed on their automobile.

The records of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, Dallas, Texas, as concerns RAUL CASTRO BAILE, Immigration and Naturalization Service number A12 707 771, were made available by Chief Clerk JEFFERSON D. WOOSLEY on March 30, 1964. This record contained the following information:

RAUL CASTRO BAILE was born February 24, 1938, at Mayari, Oriente, Cuba. His profession is pilot. His father's name is JUAN CASTRO and his mother, MARIA BAILE. His father is a Cuban and his mother a citizen of Spain, according to these records.

CASTRO was described as follows: age 26; height 69 inches; weight 143 pounds; hair light brown; eyes blue; wears mustache; sex male; color white; citizenship Cuban; wife, ROSALIA SANTIAGO LEVY, a Mexican citizen.

MEXICO CASTRO

This file reflects CASTRO illegally entered the United States at Lightner's Pump, about five miles east of Brownsville, Texas, on December 27, 1960, about 10:30 p.m. at which time he swam the Rio Grande River. Inquiry by the Immigration and Naturalization Service reflected CASTRO had left Havana, Cuba, on June 22, 1960, about 9:00 a.m. via Cubana Airlines and had arrived in Mexico City the same date about twelve noon. While in Mexico City he stayed at Chiapas #148, Colonia Roma, Mexico, D. G. He left Mexico City about twelve noon December 26, 1960, by bus and arrived in Matamoros, Tamps., Mexico, on December 27, 1960, about 7:30 p.m. CASTRO was accompanied by another Cuban citizen, JUAN FRANCISCO QUINTANA MAYA, when he entered the United States.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service file reflects CASTRO stated he had entered the United States at Brownsville because it was closer to Miami, Florida, where he intended to reside. He said he had never been to the United States before, and he had not gone to the American Consul in Cuba because he was in the military service. He said he paid no one to help him enter the United States and that he had intended to turn himself in to American officials.

CASTRO claimed he sought political asylum in the United States and that he desired to study aviation in the United States. He said he is sure he would be put to death if he were returned to Cuba. CASTRO advised he is a pilot and has Mexican private pilot license number 3935. He was a crop dusting pilot in Mexico.

DL 105-1777

This file reflected that while he was in Mexico City CASTRO attended two aviation schools, the first, Centro Internacional de Adiestramiento de Aviacion Civil, and the second, Escuela de Aviacion Mexico. CASTRO advised immigration authorities that two known Communists had attended the Centro Internacional de Adiestramiento de Aviacion Civil. One of these men is named FRANCISCO GARCIA INEZ and CASTRO does not know the name of the other man. CASTRO also reported that another known Communist, RAYMON MESA, also attended the same school where he studied meteorology. CASTRO stated to the Immigration and Naturalization Service he had 298 hours flying time with a single-engine aircraft.

At the time of his questioning by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, it was found that CASTRO had the following names and addresses on his person:

Miss JEAN MINCHEW, Box 65, Halley, Arkansas, and 4627 Kenmore, Chicago 40, Illinois
MARGARITA CEPEDA, 418 North Ada Street, Chicago 22, Illinois
LAURA URIBE, 5525 North Lake Wood, Chicago 49, Illinois
ONNETTE SMITH, 3937 Blufield, Chicago 13, Illinois
Mrs. ENRIQUE MONTALVO, 3315 North Halsted, Chicago 13, Illinois
Mr. THOMPSON, 4706 North Winthrop, Apt. 1, Chicago 40, Illinois
ANGEL DE LUORDES, 1124 West 19 Street, Chicago, Illinois

ENRIQUE ZURITA, 1124 West 19 Street, Chicago 8, Illinois
ROGER A. GOMAZ, Box 594, Newport News, Virginia
Employment Office, 206 West Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois

CASTRO advised that he planned to go to Miami, Florida, with his friend, JUAN FRANCISCO QUINTANA MAYA.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service file reflects CASTRO made Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission to the United States After Deportation on March 22, 1962. He was granted immigrant status in the United States on a nonquota basis on that same date. Since his residence began in Dallas as an immigrant, he has notified the Immigration and Naturalization of the following addresses on the dates shown:

1510 Kingsley Road, Apartment 209B, Garland, Texas, June 18, 1962.

1413 Inwood Boulevard, Garland, Texas, 8/22/63

DL 105-1777

806 East Monica Drive, Garland, Texas, August 21, 1963.

He advised the Immigration and Naturalization Service on August 21, 1963, he was employed by KENNETH K. JENKINS, 2651 Province, Dallas, Texas.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service File reflects CASTRO resided at the address Sur 53 #159, Colonia, Ermita, Churubusco, Mexico, D. F.

Dallas T-3, who is knowledgeable of many Cuban refugees and Cuban activities in Dallas, Texas, advised on April 15, 1964, CASTRO is unknown to him and is not engaged in any type of political activities or in Cuban refugee organizations in Dallas, to his knowledge.
