It is noted that RAYMOND NORRIS' bad health is very apparent and for that reason it is not probable he would be engaged in any activities which would be either materially or physically strenuous.

It is also noted that although NORRIS may not have been completely honest about his knowledge of subject's activities, he was not pressed too hard concerning this in view of his obvious bad health.

By letter dated ~~July 13~~ ^{JUNE 8,} 1960, the U. S. Department of Justice advised that it had been advised by the Federal Aviation Agency that subject's pilot's certificate had been revoked by order dated May 26, 1960, by reason of the leaflet-dropping flight over Cuba in which subject was engaged in October, 1959.

On August 4, 1960, JOSEPH THURMAN, Investigator, Immigration and Naturalization Service, (INS) Miami, advised that subject's appeal of the order expatriating him, due to his service in the armed forces of Cuba, is still pending before the Board of Immigration Appeals in Washington, D. C.

On August 4, 1960, TYLER C. WINTON, Special Details Officer, U. S. Border Patrol, Miami, advised that a source of that office, who has furnished reliable information in the past concerning the activities of subject, recently advised that subject had been, to his knowledge, inactive in the anti-CASTRO field since his effort in conjunction with former head of the Cuban Revolutionary Air Force, PEDRO DIAZ LANZ, to organize an expedition against Cuba in May, 1959.

On August 5, 1960, RAYMOND JULIUS NORRIS, 16 Northwest 19th Avenue, Apartment 5, Miami, Florida, advised SA RICHARD B. KELLOGG he was formerly from Norfolk, Virginia, and moved to Miami, Florida, in July, 1957. He said he saw very little of subject from 1952 to 1954, that he worked with him for the North American Assurance Society in Norfolk during 1954 and 1955 and saw subject quite often when subject operated the White Hat Tavern in Norfolk.

NORRIS said during 1957 subject seemed to take an interest in the political problems of Cuba, read
