Synopsis:

On 6/22/59, ENRIQUE A. GARCIA, JR., Registered Agent for the Dominican Republic (D.R.), furnished a copy of a letter allegedly written by Capt. FRANCISCO RODRIGUEZ TAMAYO, former Cuban rebel, to DAVIDSON regarding asylum in the U.S. On 7/8/59, FRANK DEVER, U.S. INS, advised that a canvass of INS employees failed to reflect identities of "top Cubans" or DAVIDSON, who allegedly represented them. RAFAEL DEL PINO advised he met DAVIDSON in Washington, D.C., and MARIANO FAGET advised he met DAVIDSON in Cuba. [WF T-2] furnished information concerning TAMAYO, PAUL LAZER, DEL PINO, and DAVIDSON, and [WF T-2] furnished information concerning DAVIDSON, [MARIO RODRIGUEZ of the D.R. Embassy] (S) and FAGET. On 7/14/59, DAVIDSON advised he never represented any one connected with the Cuban Government either past or present, nor represented or received compensation from any exiled Cuban in the U.S. or other countries. DAVIDSON admitted contacting Cubans to direct them to other government agencies so as to enhance his position with the Nicaraguan Government. Description and background of DAVIDSON set forth.

[WF T-1] advised on June 15, 1959, that PAUL LAZAR, an American pilot in Miami, was going to fly to Costa Rica and Nicaragua, for some unknown reason. When DAVIDSON heard of this he offered to pay LAZAR the same amount of money to not fly the trip. When RAFAEL DEL PINO heard of this, he called DAVIDSON and said he knew of other pilots that were to fly to Nicaragua and wanted DAVIDSON to give him money to pay these pilots not to make these other trips. DAVIDSON came to Miami to handle the matter personally, but DEL PINO was unable to produce the pilots.

[WF T-1] said that LAZAR did not make the trip to Costa Rica or Nicaragua, but that it was unknown if this was because he received or did not receive any money from DAVIDSON.

WF T-2 advised on July 24, 1959, that DAVIDSON made it known to MARIO RODRIGUEZ, First Secretary, Embassy of the D. R., that Colonel MARIANO FAGET was in Washington, D. C., and DAVIDSON advised that it would be a good idea if FAGET had a talk with the Dominican Ambassador, LUIS THOMEN. This meeting, according to the informant, was arranged for 5:00 p.m. on July 24, 1959, but the informant was unable to determine the reason for this meeting.
