ADMINISTRATIVE (CONT'D)

the index is not to be set forth in report form or dissemination memorandum without Bureau authority. (u)

Appropriate stops have been placed with the United States Department of State, -Washington, D.C., and New York City to advise the Bureau if any attempt is made by GEORGE ADAMS to leave the United States. A check of the Passport Office of the United States Department of State, New York City, reflected that to date, GEORGE ADAMS did not apply at NYC for a passport for travel to Europe. (u)

A carbon copy of a signed statement of confidential source CHARLES SOLON, dated 1/27/64, at New York, enclosed for the Bureau. The original of this signed statement will be retained in New York file pertaining to GEORGE ADAMS (105-64738.) (u)

The indices of the Miami Office contain no information concerning GEORGE ADAMS or Mrs. MARK BYRON. (u)

Information concerning individuals connected with captioned investigation mentioned in referenced report are currently under investigation by the New York Office. A report will be submitted to the Bureau under instant caption, setting forth summary and results of these investigations.

United States; that no sabotage would take place in the United States. X(u)

SCHIEBER cautioned NY T-2 not to discuss this matter with anyone and above all, he should not talk to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) about this matter. He told NY T-2 that he would be put into contact with another man who would instruct him further. SCHIEBER did not identify this other man, but said that the other man would contact him and arrange a meeting. X(u)

SCHIEBER asked NY T-2 how soon he could get a passport. NY T-2 replied that he could probably get one in a few days. He then explained to SCHIEBER that he is a Canadian citizen and could probably get a Canadian passport without any difficulty. X(u)

SCHIEBER said that his group now has the necessary money to proceed with the plan and that he wants to set the machinery into motion as quickly as possible. He said that he has talked to a Hungarian refugee and that this Hungarian is already in Europe. He said that as of this time they already have three groups in Europe ready to proceed. He said that he now intends to contact someone in the Free Lithuania Committee. The source recommended that SCHIEBER not talk to anyone at the Free Lithuania Committee, since none of that group has the necessary experience to get involved in such plans. SCHIEBER thanked the source for this information and he said that he would not contact anyone from the Free Lithuania Committee. X(u)

SCHIEBER said that his group is anxious to get started on the project and he mentioned Amsterdam as a specific city abroad, in which they would like to start their operations. He said that the group is now well organized and has carefully laid its plans. He X(u) said that earlier they had not been too well organized. He pointed out that the disappearance of SHERMAN BILLINGSLEY's son-in-law, ALEC RORKE, in Cuba, is an example of the lack of organization. He did not state that RORKE was a part of his group, however, the source got the impression that SCHIEBER was attempting to leave the impression that RORKE had been a part of his organization. ~~(u)~~

SCHIEBER advised the source that he has been in the United States for several years. He said that he is an Israeli Jew and had been very active in anti-Communist Youth work in Israel, but because of the Communist influence in the Israeli government, he had been forced to leave Israel. He said, "I am a Jew, but a Jew who is a Communist is my enemy. On the other hand an Arab who is anti-Communist is my friend." ~~(u)~~

SCHIEBER, in an earlier discussion with the source, had said that he entered the United States via Mexico. At this time, SCHIEBER exhibited Photostat copies of a letter of recommendation from Mr. JOHN RICHARDSON, Jr., who is now with the Free Europe Committee, but who at the time of the furnishing of the letter was with the International Rescue Committee. SCHIEBER also exhibited several other letters of recommendation from prominent people, which letters were used by SCHIEBER in establishing his character—so that he could enter the United States. ~~(u)~~ U.S.A.

NY T-2 stated that he has had several discussions with SCHIEBER at the offices of the ACI, and SCHIEBER has told him that he has spent his life fighting Communism. Although SCHIEBER had once given him a card reflecting that he was connected in some capacity with the ACI, on January 3, 1964, he gave him a card reflecting the name "Havio Schieber-General Contractor." This card bore a residence phone number as RI 9-1674. He told ~~(u)~~

WILLIAMS advised the source not to worry. He said that although he has little money at the moment, he was to meet two individuals on January 7th and 8th (1964) to arrange financing and that he would talk to them and try to raise some more money. ~~(u)~~

NY T-2 stated that WILLIAMS advised that he belongs to no organization, that the operation is entirely a private venture. WILLIAMS added that several people lost a great deal of money when CASTRO took over Cuba, and that many of these persons are now willing to finance an operation which will drive CASTRO and the other Communists out of Cuba so that they could recover their lost properties. ~~(u)~~

WILLIAMS stated that he had talked to "the General of the Cossacks" but that the General's wife is sick and might die. He said that he really does not know what to do about the General. He said that this is another example of SCHIEBER talking too much and trying to push things too fast. ~~(u)~~

WILLIAMS said that another such example was ALEXANDER RORKE. He said that RORKE flew to a small island off the tip of Yucatan, near the Honduras coast. He was supposed to make a refueling stop at this particular place. Unknown to anyone else, RORKE picked up a third man named GARCIA. Although RORKE was supposed to be flying to Panama, and had filed a flight plan for this destination, as soon as GARCIA was picked up and the plane was airborne, he radioed that he was changing his course and destination to Honduras. WILLIAMS said that he kept telling RORKE that he was handling things all wrong, but RORKE would not listen to him. He said that when RORKE left, he had a tremendous amount of money with him, and that this money disappeared with RORKE. He said that RORKE was travelling with a pilot named SULLIVAN, who had flown RORKE many times before. After the plane took off from Yucatan, it was not seen again. He said that since no wreckage has ever been found, he is convinced that the plane was forced to land in Cuba. ~~(u)~~

ADAMS commented that the source's prior idea concerning the use of a ship as a base of operation in the Cuban waters, is a very good idea, and that as a matter of fact, he has learned that some of the anti-CASTRO Cuban rebels, possibly the Alpha 66 group, have a ship operating in the Caribbean. He said that he will try to find out what organization it is. He said that it has been very successful, and he pointed out that a few days before, this group had made a strike on the Isle of Pines.

~~Alexander Irving Rorke Jr.~~ aka ~~Alex Rorke~~,
The following investigation was conducted to determine if the ACI headquarters ~~Alexander Rorke~~, ~~Alec Rorke~~ in New York City is active in the Miami area, and to determine if this organization sponsored the September 24, 1963, ill-fated airplane flight of ~~ALEXANDER I. RORKE, Jr.~~ from Broward International Airport, Florida, who was reported last seen at Cozumel, Mexico. ~~X~~

On December 16, 1963, ~~LAUREANO BATISTA FALLA~~, military leader of the anti-Communist organization known as ~~Movimiento Democrata-Cristiano (MDC)~~, headquartered at 1732 N. W. 7th Street, Miami, advised that he had never heard of the ACI, and although he had been personally acquainted with ALEXANDER I. RORKE, Jr., he had never heard RORKE mention this organization. BATISTA estimated that for RORKE to properly maintain his boat, the "Violyn III," which is worth about $10,000.00, and his Beachcraft, which is worth about $50,000.00, RORKE would have to have had about $2,000.00 a month income. BATISTA said he did not know the source of RORKE's funds, of which he never spoke, but BATISTA had not doubt that through RORKE's lecture tours, he was able to meet a number of people who were willing and able to make large donations.
