These officers successfully located several pertinent witnesses, one of which was CARLA ~~FERRARRI~~, and another, TONY ~~DELSANTER~~, who, according to SPRIGLE, was the actual trigger man. After an extensive investigation by the local authorities, the case was presented to the Grand Jury in April, 1951. A no bill was returned by the Grand Jury, and no further comment was made by local authorities or by RAY SPRIGLE.

JAMES O'CONNOR has advised Agents of this office that he has heard rumors to the effect that there was a $40,000 fix in this case and to the effect that JAMES GARROW, brother of the murdered FREDDIE GARROW, knows who actually killed his brother and EVANS, and that JIMMY GARROW is being paid off by the mob to keep his mouth shut.

JIMMY GARROW, who is a potential criminal informant of this office and whose identity should be kept strictly confidential, has been contacted in several matters, and during these contacts the subject of his brother's death has come up; however, GARROW seems reluctant to talk about his brother and has mentioned on several occasions that he is still very friendly with TONY ~~RIPEPI~~. It should be noted that TONY RIPEPI is a close associate of FRANK VALENTI. It has also been observed that GARROW seems quite well to do, and he has mentioned on several occasions that he has borrowed considerable amounts of money from RIPEPI, amounting to approximately $28,000. GARROW inferred that he had no intention of repaying this money. This might lend some credence to the rumors heard by JAMES O'CONNOR.

TONY RIPEPI, who has been mentioned in prior Intelligence Reports, as residing in Gallatin, Pa., was recently interviewed at his new residence, 4720 Brownsville Road, Pittsburgh, by Agents of this office. RIPEPI advised that he has been in the Keystone Music Company in Pittsburgh for approximately eight years and has admitted his connection with the Getodo gambling casino in Monessen, Pa. RIPEPI also advised that DOMINICK ANZALONE and GENO ~~SERVENTI~~ are his partners in the operation of this club. He stated that there are two silent partners; however, he refused to furnish their identity.
