in Detroit. FRENCH advised that GROSBERG apparently had no first-hand knowledge of the matter and could not provide more specific information; and it was believed that CROWTHER's information was hearsay.

On 10/21/63, DE 643-C, who is familiar with local bankruptcy matters, advised that CHARLES A. HORIST, former president of Redford Iron Works, Inc. (RIW), had been discharged in bankruptcy in U.S. District Court, Detroit; and among the debts so discharged was a $240,000.00 guaranty by HORIST to Public Bank in regard to indebtedness of RIW. Informant was advised by HORIST that he had lost his stock in RIW through a "fast shuffle" involving HARRY LEVINE; IRWIN KASOFF, an attorney characterized as LEVINE's "boy"; and JOSEPH VERHELLE, former president of Public Bank. VERHELLE allegedly had exerted pressure upon HORIST by calling for payment of loans made by the bank to RIW. Informant did not have specific information as to the dealings between the above-mentioned individuals but believed HORIST might be willing to discuss the matter.

DE 29-1432

Department Attorney WILLIAM P. FRENCH, Detroit, advised that the Department of Justice had received hearsay information from a confidential source to the effect that about the time of an FDIC examination of Public Bank (PB) in 1961 or 1962, a substantial loan from PB to Redford Iron Works, Inc. (RIW) was in serious difficulty. For the sake of appearances during the FDIC examination, JOSEPH F. VERHELLE, President of PB, allegedly caused HARRY LEVINE of Ewald Steel Sales and Supply Company (Ewald) to assume liability for the above-mentioned loan. It was further alleged that LEVINE understood he would be relieved of this liability after the examination was ended but VERHELLE failed to do so. Mr. FRENCH requested that a preliminary investigation be made to ascertain whether there was any basis for the above allegations and whether there was any connection indicated with the matters under investigation in this case.

The following information was included in the FDIC report of examination of PB which began December 26, 1961:

Indebtedness of RIW to PB at the time of examination totaled $470,138.47, consisting of direct borrowing of $440,000.00 and overdrafts of $30,138.47. IRWIN J. KASOFF, HARRY S. LEVINE and CHARLES A. HORIST had signed continuing guaranties for any and all indebtedness of RIW to PB. HORIST had been president of RIW prior to the fall of 1961 when KASOFF reportedly purchased control of RIW and became president. Borrowing by RIW from PB originated in July, 1960, at $60,000.00 and regularly increased to the total of $440,000.00. RIW "filed for dissolution" January 11, 1962, but was adjudicated bankrupt January 15, 1962. In addition to the above-mentioned guaranties, PB held as collateral for its loans to RIW $68,481.48 in cash; assignment of accounts receivable; 1,375 shares of capital stock of RIW; an unrecorded chattel mortgage for $230,000.00 covering inventory; and a real estate mortgage dated October 6, 1961, for $200,000.00. The FDIC examiner concluded there was an apparent violation of Section 74,
