William G. Dudley, Federal Prisoner, Du Page County Jail, Wheaton, Illinois and James P. Piragine, Attorney at Law, 208 South La Salle, Chicago, a former assistant US Attorney, Northern District of Illinois, advised of a meeting on or about 5/24 or 25/61 in the office of US Marshal, Joseph N. Tierney, Chicago, between Dudley, Piragine and Al Weiner. The meeting concerned bond arrangements for Dudley, who was under indictment by the US Federal Grand Jury at Chicago for violation of the Mail Fraud statute. Dudley stated Weiner did not desire to make his bond.

On 12/8/61, Irwin S. Weiner, Treasurer, American Bonding Agency, Inc., 1019 South State Street, Chicago, Ill., refused to discuss with SAs the possible irregularities and/or misconduct of federal employees of the United States Marshal's Office, Northern District of Illinois (62-50150) at Chicago. He stated he had been acquainted with the US Marshal, Joseph Tierney for possibly more than twenty years.
