^{TO} Attention of the Chicago Office is directed to Chicago letter to Miami 4/9/69, setting forth results of contact with PAUL CALAMARI, Sales Manager, Bally Manufacturing Company, 2640 West Belmont, Chicago.

^{TO} Attention is also directed to Miami airtel to Chicago 4/17/69, furnishing information reflecting that 90 Bally slot machines were to be shipped "from the Bahamas" to Haiti. In an interview with MM 1351-PC on 4/16/69, it was reported that EDDIE CELLINI, Manager of the Paradise Island Casino, was not shipping the Bally machines to Haiti. Informant indicated the machines possibly would be shipped by the Bally Corporation, Nassau, Bahamas.

Inquiry by the Chicago Office has revealed EDWARD CELLINI has been a customer of Bally Bahamanian, which is the Bally outlet for slot machines in the Islands.

It is requested PAUL CALAMARI be again interviewed and an attempt be made to determine the exact association between Bally Corporation and EDDIE CELLINI, and to ascertain whether or not the 90 slot machines reportedly being shipped to Haiti were purchased by EDDIE CELLINI or by some other unidentified individual in the Bahamas.

The following investigation was conducted by Agents of the Baltimore Office:

On March 19, 1969, Lieutenant GEORGE ANDREW, Baltimore Police Department Racket Squad, advised he knows of EDWIN S. ROGERS as a used car salesman in the Baltimore area, who has been a gambler for a number of years. He said to his knowledge ROGERS does not participate in gambling other than as a player. Lieutenant ANDREWS said he has never heard of MAURICE FRIED who lives at 277 Ballou Court. Lieutenant ANDREW observed Ballou Court is a low-income housing area known as the Perkins Homes.

On March 7, 1969, MARGARET WHEATLEY, Administrative Assistant in the office for Perkins Homes, advised MAURICE FRIED, telephone 327-9144, resides at 277 Ballou Court. She described FRIED as a man in his 70's, who, to her knowledge, seldom leaves his home.
