This report is the property of the United States Civil Service Commission and may be recalled at any time. Transfer of this report to another agency or access to it outside your agency is not permitted without prior-consent of the Commission.

Information in this report has been obtained under a pledge of confidence. The sources of information must not be disclosed to the person investigated. He may not be confronted with any information in this report in a manner which would reveal or permit him to deduce the source of the information. Exceptions to this rule are (1) information of public record which could be obtained on request by the general public, and (2) information from Federal personnel records which could be obtained on request by the employee.

The report and its contents must be safeguarded in a manner to prohibit its unauthorized disclosure. Authorized access is limited to those persons who by virtue of their official duty require access to the information contained therein.

The testimony of all witnesses is given in substance unless indicated by quotation marks.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS

This report covers employment with Durst Industries, New York, New York, from about 1950 to present; and concurrent employment with New York University, New York, New York, from February 1, 1958 to present; education at New York University, New York, New York, from about October, 1951 to about January, 1957; neighborhood investigation at New York, New York where subject has resided from June, 1956 to present. Subject described as problem tenant because of aggressive attitude toward management. Another witness had reservations about recommending subject because he felt that subject had reneged on a personal promise. Several witnesses described subject as "liberal", "left of center", "reformer", and "fighter for unpopular causes". But all these witnesses felt he could not be regarded as radical or subversive or a political extremist. A confidential investigative source furnished documents indicating subject's membership in an organization designated by the House Un-American Activities Committee as subversive, and indicating that he has denounced the conduct of security clearances by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and has actively advocated abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Subject's date and place of birth were corroborated.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Employment

DURST INDUSTRIES, 409 Lafayette Street, Second Floor. Information furnished by Mrs. Yetta K. Silverstein, Bookkeeper.

Mr. Norman Redlich was already an officer of this company when I came to work here in January, 1963. This is a firm operated by several members of his immediate family and his mother is the President of the corporation. We are a somewhat small, friendly group and we do not have formal personnel folders. We do not have applicants for positions fill out application forms, because most of the people working here are either members of the family or very close friends.

However, our records indicate that the social security number of Mr. Norman Redlich is 101-22-9595 and his home address is 29 Washington Square North. He holds two different positions in the firm, he is Secretary to Durst and is President of our wholly owned subsidiary, Lafayette Brass Company.

MRS. YETTA K. SILVERSTEIN, Care of Durst Industries.

My affiliation with Mr. Redlich is in a business capacity only. I regard him as a very fine person, altogether upstanding and honorable. He is also a very level headed and stable individual who makes a very nice personal appearance. He seems to enjoy good health. I have never observed anything of an adverse, derogatory or unfavorable nature about any aspect of his personal life.

There is not the slightest doubt in my mind about his loyalty and patriotism. To the best of my knowledge, he would not affiliate with any radical or subversive individuals or organizations. I am sure he is a discreet person in handling the most sensitive, important kind of information. I certainly would recommend him for a position involving access to very sensitive information.
