DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D.C.Contacts Of Subject With RAFAEL MEDAN (S)

Confidential Informant T-1, learned that DAJANY had been contacted on June 11, 1958, by RAFAEL MEDAN, Assistant Director of Press Relations, of the Israeli Delegation to the United Nations. MEDAN, who was in Washington, D.C., identified himself as "GOLDEN" (phonetic) in his request to contact DAJANY. Informant advised that MEDAN requested that DAJANY meet him at 12:30 P. M. on June 11, 1958, for a couple of minutes inasmuch as MEDAN was in a hurry (S) ^{WASH, D.C.}

On June 11, 1958, OMAR DAJANY was observed by SAs of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to enter the lobby of the Roger Smith Hotel, where he met MEDAN at approximately 12:30 P. M. MEDAN was observed to rise from a seat in the Roger Smith and walk toward DAJANY and as the two met, MEDAN dropped a copy of the magazine, "The New Yorker" and a 15" by 15" by 4" green and white striped paper bag. Both men stooped, however, the items were picked up by DAJANY and the two resumed their conversation. After conversing momentarily, DAJANY and MEDAN departed from the hotel lobby, conversed just outside the building, and DAJANY then walked to the International Bank Building with the items he received at the hotel. MEDAN was observed to catch a taxicab and go to the Fairfax Hotel. (S)

It could not definitely be determined by the SAs, that MEDAN had the green and white striped paper bag and/or the magazine when he left the Israeli Embassy, however, it was ascertained that he made no stops in route to the Roger Smith Hotel from the time he left the Israeli Embassy. (S) ^{WASH, D.C.}

It was further determined, at the Roger Smith Hotel, on June 11, 1958, that green and white paper bags similar to the one which MEDAN had in his possession originally, were not provided for purchases in the hotel. (S)

It is to be noted that on June 10, 1958, DAJANY was observed to leave the Roger Smith Hotel at approximately 2:20 P. M. and return to the International Bank Building. On this date, MEDAN was observed to arrive at Washington, D.C. via American Airlines Flight Number 327, which arrived in the Washington National Airport at 2:42 P. M. (S)

On June 25, 1958, RAFAEL MEDAN was observed to depart from the Israeli Embassy at approximately 5:30 P. M., carrying a brown manila envelope under his left arm and carrying a dispatch (S) case with which he had arrived in Washington, D. C. earlier that day. MEDAN was driven to the Roger Smith Hotel by taxicab. (S)

At approximately 5:55 P. M., DAJANY was observed to leave the International Bank Building and enter the lobby of the Roger Smith Hotel. DAJANY, it was observed, was carrying a newspaper and holding up the open ends of the folded paper under his arm. He also had in his possession a manila envelope which appeared to be similar to that carried by MEDAN. After talking momentarily, the two left the Roger Smith Hotel and walked to Cleaves Cafeteria, which is located on G Street, between 17th and 18th Streets, N.W. (S)

In the restaurant, MEDAN was observed to take notes while DAJANY talked and appeared to be gesticulating and explaining a point while the two ate. At one point during the meal, there were two pieces of paper passed by DAJANY to MEDAN. One, a 4" by 6" sheet which definitely had no writing on one side, was taken by MEDAN and placed on the table. It then appeared that MEDAN might have written on this paper. The other sheet of paper, which was about letter size, was also perused by MEDAN and placed on the table. It could not be determined if the papers were retained by MEDAN or returned to DAJANY. (S)

Shortly after 7:00 P. M. MEDAN and DAJANY left the cafeteria and walked together to the corner of 18th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., from which point MEDAN took a taxi to the Woodner Hotel. DAJANY returned to the International Bank Building and on entering was observed to be carrying a manila envelope similar to the one he had had on meeting MEDAN. It could not be determined if MEDAN was still in possession of a manila envelope. (S)

On July 10, 1958, OMAR DAJANY was observed to meet with RAFAEL MEDAN in the lobby of the Roger Smith Hotel at approximately 12:15 P. M. After talking in the lobby for a while, they went to the cocktail lounge just off the lobby where they sat and talked. While waiting in the lobby, a manila envelope approximately 9" by 12" in size, was observed lying between the two men on the seat. (S)

At 1:20 P. M., DAJANY and MEDAN departed from the hotel. MEDAN took a taxi to the Israeli Embassy and DAJANY boarded a streetcar which took him to 15th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. (S)

On the streetcar, DAJANY was observed to hold in his hand something which appeared to be about a 9" by 12" pamphlet or soft-covered booklet, which DAJANY had on leaving the Roger Smith Hotel. He opened the pamphlet and from about center-way of the pamphlet, he took a business type white envelope. He (S) hurriedly tore open the envelope and peered inside. At the bank he was observed to be sitting and making out a deposit slip and beside him on the table was the white envelope or one similar to that which he had taken from the pamphlet on the streetcar. At one of the teller's cages, DAJANY was observed holding a stack of currency, on top of which was a five dollar bill. After completing his deposit, DAJANY stopped at an "Information" desk where he talked to an unidentified woman. (S)

Shortly thereafter, DAJANY left the bank, no longer holding the pamphlet, and boarded a streetcar which took him to 18th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. He walked one block south to McReynolds Pharmacy where he was later observed reading what appeared to be a racing form. He remained in the Pharmacy approximately five minutes and then returned to the International Bank Building. (S)

In connection with DAJANY's visit to the bank on July 10, 1958, confidential informant T-2 advised on July 11, 1958, that OMAR DAJANY had deposited in the bank to his checking account, $350 on July 10, 1958. Also, according to T-2, DAJANY purchased a cashiers check on July 10, 1958, in the amount of $35 which was made payable to Mr. ADLI DAJANI. (S)

ADLI DAJANI is unknown to T-2. (S)

The above information was made available on a strictly confidential basis and cannot be made public except upon the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

On July 23, 1958, OMAR DAJANY was observed to depart from the International Bank Building at approximately 5:36 P. M. carrying a manila envelope which was about 8" by 10" in size, which appeared to be similar to the one observed lying between DAJANY and MEDAN at the Roger Smith Hotel on July 10, 1958. (S)

At 5:44 P. M., RAFAEL MEDAN was observed to depart from the Israeli Embassy in the company of BARUCH BARAK in a car assigned to BARAK. The destinations of DAJANY or MEDAN could not be determined. BARAK, a Second Secretary, is assigned to the Israeli Embassy. (S)

At approximately 7:18 P. M., MEDAN was observed in the company of DAJANY at the American Airlines ticket window at the Washington National Airport. DAJANY, as far as it could be determined, no longer had in his possession, the manila envelope he had been seen with previously. MEDAN was carrying (S)

ACCESS OF SUBJECT TO INFORMATION AT THE
INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT (S)

On July 14, 1958, the Office of Security, Department of State, advised that on July 1, 1958, it had been determined from the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development that DAJANY is a loan operations officer employed in the Department of Operations for the Far East. The subject's duties are concerned primarily with Thailand and occasionally other Far East countries. The subject does not handle any information in the course of his normal duties that would be of interest to the Israeli Government, either from an intelligence or economic point of view. (S)

It was ascertained that the business of the bank does not deal with any information which would be classified because of a national security interest. It was learned that certain information is administratively controlled and available only to staff members of the bank. It was explained, however, that the administratively controlled material is available to the general public through various other sources. The bank restricts its information only because of a desire to release the information at a particular time. The subject would have access to the files throughout the various departments of the bank but would have no cause to utilize these files in his position. (S)

On July 14, 1958, the Office of Security was advised that a thorough search of all records of the various departments of the bank failed to disclose that DAJANY had withdrawn any files outside of the normal course of his duties. To the knowledge of the State Department's source, the bank maintains no information which would be of interest to the Israeli Government from an economic or intelligence viewpoint. (S)

CONTACTS OF THE SUBJECT (S)

On June 24, 1958, Confidential Informant T-3 advised that MAHMOUD ROUSAN, Minister of the Jordan Embassy, had been in contact with DAJANY. According to the informant, DAJANY indicated he would be the happiest man possible if he were to learn that ROUSAN had returned to Jordan and settled in a position to ROUSAN's liking and pursued his popularity with everyone. It was DAJANY's hope that ROUSAN would enter (S) into the political field, or whatever ROUSAN desired, and that ROUSAN become very successful. (S)

DAJANY indicated he is acquainted with CAMILLE CHAMOUN, President of Lebanon; CHARLES MALIK, Foreign Minister of Lebanon, and NURI EL SAID (former Premier of Iraq and now deceased). (S)

In indicating his acquaintances, DAJANY complained that he was cut off from any of his acquaintances at home and cursed the people in Jordan who had cut him off. DAJANY indicated he had no political future in Jordan and yet he still had many friends. DAJANY described ROUSAN as being the same caliber as many of his acquaintances, but felt ROUSAN was even superior because ROUSAN was bold and courageous. DAJANY advised he would foresake whatever wealth and position he might have at some future time and would look forward to someone like ROUSAN with whom he could co-operate and work all over again in the interest of Jordan. (S)

According to the informant, ROUSAN indicated he was loyal to the King of Jordan and would challenge anyone who was close to the King to prove their loyalty to the King was greater than his own. ROUSAN felt that persons around the King had talked and intrigued against him, and that there is also gossip about him in Washington. ROUSAN blamed YOUSUF HAIKAL or TAYSIR TOUKAN for reporting that ROUSAN was in contact with "undesirable persons." According to ROUSAN, information concerning his contact with undesirable persons had come to him from Amman, Jordan. (S)

ISRAELI
JORDAN

ROUSAN was not acquainted too well with the source of the information, however, some individual had contacted ROUSAN after seeing the King of Jordan, and this person was made to understand by the King that ROUSAN had exceeded proper bounds and special regulations. ROUSAN contradicted this, however, by stating that the King himself had requested ROUSAN write him, and as a consequence, ROUSAN had written directly to the King. ROUSAN felt his whole case was wrapped up with the King and not with anyone else, and ROUSAN felt that writing to the King, an acquaintance, did not exceed proper bounds. Also the King, according to ROUSAN's source, had reproached ROUSAN because of information reaching him that ROUSAN was in contact with undesirable persons. ROUSAN was not able to explain who "undesirable persons" were or what it meant. (S)

ROUSAN indicated that he had sent a "terrible reply," apparently to his Government, and as a result a Jordanian officer had come to the United States and ROUSAN had questioned him concerning the information. The officer told ROUSAN that the information had originated in the United States. ROUSAN had no idea where the information had come from in the United States and who would want to intrigue against him. As a result, ROUSAN stated he has boycotted everyone, both friends and enemies, and was not seeing anyone. ROUSAN has also commented to his Government concerning undesirable persons and has written them he did not believe there are any fellow countrymen who are undesirable people. (S)

According to the current "Diplomatic List," published by the Department of State, TOUKAN is the Second Secretary in the Jordan Embassy, and Doctor YOUSUF HAIKAL is the Ambassador of Jordan in Washington. (S)

On July 28, 1958, Confidential Informant T-4, another agency of the Government which conducts personnel and intelligence investigations, reported that ROUSAN had been positively identified as the chief conspirator of a plot to overthrow the current Pro-United States Government in Jordan. ROUSAN has been arrested on this charge and is currently in jail in Amman, Jordan. (S)

On April 30, 1958, SA DONALD J. MacDONALD reviewed the Bresser's Cross Index Directory for Detroit, Michigan, which disclosed that [WE 3-5200] is subscribed to [S] by [Charlie's Oldsmobile-Cadillac, Incorporated, Cadillac Division, 10225 Grand] Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan. (S)

On May 12 and May 14, 1958, Miss KATHERINE TRACY, Supervisor, Merchants Credit Bureau, Detroit, Michigan, and Mr. WILLIAM RECKNAGEL, Manager of the Michigan Merchants Credit Association in Detroit, respectively, advised that their files contained no records identifiable with [ERWIN SCHNEIDER]. (S)

On May 26, 1958, a telephonic inquiry was made to [Charlie's Oldsmobile-Cadillac, Incorporated] in [S] Detroit by SA MacDONALD. It was established that ERWIN [SCHNEIDER] is employed by that corporation as a car [S] salesman. (S)

Information was previously furnished in this investigation reflecting that on February 28, 1958, T-7 reported that on October 22, 1957, [telephone CH 2-8172] [S] in New York City was contacted from the subject's residence in Washington. (S)

On the evening of June 11, 1958, SAs of the FBI observed DAJANY visit a four-family apartment dwelling at 3516 Clay Place, N. E. DAJANY was observed to take something from the trunk of his car, which appeared to be food-stuffs and drink, and enter an apartment to the right of the entrance. (S)

On June 12, 1958, a check of the apartments at 3516 Clay Place, N. E., disclosed that the apartment to the right of the entrance is apartment 2. According to the mailbox, the apartment is occupied by CATHERINE WRIGHT and CLARE HAWKINS. (S) D.C.

On July 23, 1958, Confidential Informant T-8 advised that DAJANY had contacted Doctor ABDEL ALAM, who is possibly identical with the Social and Labor Attache of the Embassy of the UAR. According to the informant, DAJANY had received a letter from a friend who had asked some questions, and DAJANY asked for ALAM's assistance. DAJANY indicated he would make an attempt to see ALAM at the latter's home on the same evening, but it was later decided that ALAM would come to see DAJANY at the latter's residence. DAJANY desired that ALAM stay for a while. (S) U.A.R. D.C.

On August 7, 1958, T-8 advised that Doctor ALAM contacted DAJANY to report he had not been able to find anyone who knows "the man." According to ALAM, the man is apparently a naturalized American citizen and not an Egyptian. The man is said to work at the Afghanistan Embassy, but DAJANY does not know how long. (S)

According to T-8, the above contact possibly concerned damage or loss of DAJANY's car through fire when another person lit a cigarette, and DAJANY's teeth have been damaged as a result. ALAM, in discussing buying and selling of furniture, indicated he did not want to buy too much furniture since there was always a chance that the situation in the Middle East will get worse, and he may have to return to Cairo under emergency conditions.
