10/22/63

GRANN advised the informant that a representative of the Internal Revenue Service had been in her office and had made a remark about the Italians. She stated that she told him that she was Italian but had finally admitted that she was not but was of German descent.

GRANN stated that she was aware that the man from the Internal Revenue Service knew she was the subject's girl friend but she knew that he does not know that she is aware of this.

Later GRANN related that GEORGE (SALVATORE BONITO, aka George Raft) mentioned that he was going to take the car which had been impounded by the Federal Government. It appeared she was referring to the automobile owned by THOMAS CALLEA, which had been impounded after a recent bookmaking arrest. She stated she told BONITO that he would be shot if he tried and that since he was in his attorney's office at the time he should ask for legal advice. She stated that BONITO was accompanied by DANNY (SANSANESE) at the time and that he was told he was crazy if he tried. From this it appears that BONITO is represented by SALTEN RODENBERG, the attorney.

The subject and GRANN then had a discussion concerning a book dealing with JOSEPH KENNEDY, the father of the President, and GRANN expressed the opinion that the President and the Attorney General do not know what to do since up until recently their father has been directing all their activities.

CI observed subject and GRANN but furnished no additional pertinent information.

10/24/63

The subject advised CI that he had been invited to a dinner that night and mentioned the name KANE. This possibly refers to a dinner given on behalf of the Democratic candidate for County Executive JAMES L. KANE.

Later the subject and GRANN discussed BENNY (SPANNO ?) who gives cleaning to someone to handle and makes $38 a day. They noted he has to pay $400 a month for the cleaning and as a result, according to GRANN he must have at least $175 a week to make anything.

In a discussion concerning a book which RANDACCIO is reading and which may refer to a book previously mentioned referring to the KENNEDY family, the subject stated that it mentions prostitution. GRANN criticized RANDACCIO for making this statement, claiming that he will make such a remark in front of AL PACINI, who will read the book and not seeing any reference in it to prostitution will conclude that RANDACCIO is unable to read.

Later GRANN advised the informant that she is 25 years old but usually tells people that she is 21 or 22.

Subsequently in a discussion concerning cameras RANDACCIO suggested that GRANN purchase one at Mason's Camera Store which is near her place of employment. They then had a discussion concerning Lesbians and GRANN indicated that she had one experience with a girl named BARBARA (LNU) at the time that GRANN was in the Good Shepherd Home, at which time GRANN was 13 years old and BARBARA had stayed at GRANN's home over night.

RANDACCIO later advised the informant that he could be contacted at approximately 12:45 AM on 10/25/63 at Snowball Panaro's Tavern.
