were: JOSEPH CAPALACES, ANTHONY GUARNIERI, ROBERT GUARNIERI and LOUIS MARCONI. It was also reflected that the company, between July 1, 1955, and June 30, 1956, had receipts of $113,561.12; between July 5, 1956, and June 30, 1957, had receipts of $110,145.08; and, from July 1, 1957, to December 31, 1957, had receipts of $43,347.48.

Confidential Informant Albany T-26 advised that the Tri-Cities Dress Company had numerous communications with various dress houses in New York City and Pittston, Pennsylvania. Among these companies was the Seambinding Company, 254 W. 35th Street, New York City. This company is a jobber of notions with sales made to over 100 active accounts consisting of women's dresses, coat and suit manufacturers, as well as garment contractors located throughout the New York Metropolitan Area. Its officers as of May, 1957, included JAMES PLUMERI, President; MILTON SCHWARTZ; Secretary, and HARRY OBERYANT, Treasurer. PLUMERI is a subject of investigation in connection with Anti-Racketeering in New York City.

T-6 advised that the subject sold shirts in the Binghamton, New York area.

Confidential Informant Albany T-27 advised SA JAMES P. MANSFIELD on April 29, 1958, that he has been doing business with GUARNIERI for approximately two years, during which time he purchased about $8,000.00 to $10,000.00 in goods, principally men's shirts and some men's underwear. He said GUARNIERI usually paid for his purchases in cash; however, on one occasion he did present him a check. GUARNIERI indicated to T-27 that he sold his purchases to individuals.

On May 15, 1958, Mr. HERBERT MAUTHNER, 63 Orchard Street, New York City, owner of HeMa Shirt Company, advised SA MANSFIELD that the name ANTHONY FRANK GUARNIERI was unknown to him. After viewing a photograph of subject, he said that the photograph resembled an individual he knew as PHILIP from Binghamton, New York. He said that beginning about two years ago, PHILIP appeared at the shirt company every two or three months, at which time he would purchase one dozen long-sleeve gaberdine shirts. He said PHILIP was always alone and paid in cash. He said that PHILIP's purchases usually amounted to about $24.00 at each sale, and for a period of approximately 15 months, his total purchases amounted to about $200.00.
