Reference is made to report of SA John F. Burke dated and captioned as above at Newark, New Jersey.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on January 25, 1964, advised that the subject had opened his Newark crap game, and that it was still being run by his lieutenant, Carl Silesia.

On February 7, 1964, this source reported that the subject informed him that they were paying money each month for protection to operate their crap game in Newark. Subject stated that Newark Police Director Dominick Spina receives $750 monthly; Newark Mayor Hugh Addonizio gets $600 monthly; Essex County Sheriff Leroy D'Aloia receives $500 monthly; Newark Police Inspector Daniel Dughi receives $500 monthly; and Newark policeman Rocky Ferrante receives $775 each month, $400 of this amount is for Ferrante himself and $50 is for each of the seven men on his squad. A trooper, whom De Carlo, did not identify, also receives $200 monthly.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated in January, 1964, that the subject told him that when Charlie Workman is released from prison, he intends to give him $1,000. Workman has been serving a sentence in State Prison at Trenton, New Jersey, for the murder of Dutch Schultz, an old-time Prohibition figure in the late 1930s.

On January 19, 1964, this source advised that the subject continues to be involved in shylocking with Red Cecere.

On January 24, 1964, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that the subject told him he had an appointment to meet with East Newark Chief of Police M. J. Duffy in the office of
