1:25	pm	ie	SECRET W7498-54 English/Craddock (EDWARD EPSTEIN) student at Cornell University, to (JAIME CABALLERO TAMAYO) Caller said he would like to come to the Mission to talk to someone, and was advised that no one was there during the last 2 weeks of the year, that he should try to come after the holiday season. Caller explained that he was trying to get an impression of the image that the US has created among various classes in (Bolivia), and JCT said he could discuss the matter with him over the telephone. JCT said that US aid is making a very good impression, and added that all people in (Bolivia), from the highest to the lowest working classes, considered President KENNEDY's death a national tragedy, that there have been masses in his memory all over the country. Caller asked about the USIS, and was advised that the USIS is not doing a good job; that it could be good, but that it needs a reprogramming which would stress education and the social part of the US. JCT said most Americans know a great deal more about European history, for example, than the vital events in the past of (Latin America). He mentioned a recent article he had read in the New York "Times" magazine, in which one of the most noted (Bolivian) intellectuals was said to be from (Chile) as an example of the prevalent ignorance about (Latin America) in this country. They discussed the economy of (Brazil), and JCT said that the main problem is to diversify the (Bolivian) economy, not to eliminate the (mining) industry, which is the main industry in (Bolivia) and is likely to remain so for many years. Caller asked about the present position of the (Falange), the right wing party, and was advised that it is weak at this time. Caller said he was definitely going to (Peru) this summer, and may go to (Bolivia), with a group from Cornell University.
