The enclosed memorandum reveals that on 1/14/68 Mrs. Marina Porter (formerly Mrs. Marina Oswald) contacted her father, Aleksandr Ivanovich Medvedev, a resident of Leningrad, USSR, and invited him to visit her in the U. S. Mrs. Porter said she would pay the expenses for the visit and her father stated he would try to obtain the necessary papers which would permit him to come. Although she apparently called him father, the man she contacted is probably her stepfather, Alexandr Ivanovich Medvedev, according to her testimony before the Warren Commission.
