ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963
DALLAS, TEXAS

Enclosed are the original and one copy of a memorandum responding to your memorandum of March 24, 1978, concerning Willem Oltmans and a "General" Donald A. Donaldson.

For your additional information, a search of FBI Headquarters' (FBIHQ) files shows that Oltmans, a free-lance Dutch journalist, is known to have associated with George De Mohrenschildt and to have advised a news reporter that De Mohrenschildt claimed to have been responsible for Lee Harvey Oswald's actions. FBIHQ's files do not confirm this assertion. A relative of De Mohrenschildt has advised the FBI that "lies" concocted by Oltmans are "horrible."

FBIHQ's files further indicate that a Dimiter Adamoff Dimitroff, also known as Dimitris Danopoulos, Diko Dikoff, Dimitrois A. Dimitrof, D. Dimitrion, Dimitros A. Dimitriou, and Donald Donaldson, is known to the FBI. In response to a Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) inquiry, on October 28, 1977, the Bureau advised the CIA that Dimitroff had once allegedly claimed he was doing work for the FBI but that we had no record of such employment, that a General Dico Dimitrov had attempted to contact (an Israeli) diplomat, that Donald Donaldson, born February 10, 1931, at Winnipeg, Canada, was known to the Los Angeles Office of Immigration and Naturalization Service under its number A12594316, and that records of the Denver, Colorado, FBI Office reflected that Donald Donaldson was an alias of Dimitroff, who used that name in dealing with at least one of his victims in a fraudulent scheme.
