MM 174-311

During the past week, a stink bomb was placed in the Dade County Auditorium by four Cuban women who are friends of the members of Cuban Power. This stink bomb is apparently totally unrelated to the smoke bomb which was recently placed in the Miami Beach Auditorium. The identities of these four women are not known.

On April 1, 1968, ~~CARLOS ZARRAGA MARTINEZ~~, Key Source - Cuba, advised SA ROBERT JAMES DWYER, about a week ago, ~~RICARDO MORALES~~ said he was responsible for the bombing of the Specialized Services on January 25, 1968, for which he was arrested. Fla

~~MORALES~~ said that previously he had contacted ~~ENRIQUE HUERTAS~~, President of the Cuban Medical Association in Exile, and proposed certain anti-CASTRO activities and requested money from HUERTAS for these activities. HUERTAS did not say no but started to act in an unusual way by giving MORALES a code name and certain secret telephone numbers where MORALES could contact him. Cuba Fla

MORALES told HUERTAS it was necessary for them to stop commerce with Cuba. HUERTAS said he could do this through diplomatic means.

Later, MORALES became discouraged because of HUERTAS' lack of action and apparently started to operate on his own. MORALES spent a month working on his alibi.

MORALES said he also told ~~FERNANDO PENABAZ~~ all about his activities and admitted he blew up the Specialized Services. Fla

MORALES said he was connected with a group of young Cuban exiles in Miami who are anxious for anti-CASTRO activities. This group is called ~~EJERCITO SECRETO~~. The members have had no training in arms or explosives and have had no experience in the use of military equipment. However, they are extremely anxious for military or terrorist activities. MORALES has formed a unity pact with this group. Fla 56

MORALES complained that the FBI follows and photographs him and now has him documented as a terrorist.
